OFF-WORLD INFLUENCERS

The subjects explored in this book are complex, controversial, and may challenge conventional beliefs. Readers are encouraged to approach the material with an open mind, setting aside any preconceived notions about UFOs and extraterrestrial phenomena. The information presented is intended for exploration and discussion, not as absolute truth. Readers are urged to critically evaluate the content, conduct their own research, and form their own conclusions. Given the vast and often speculative nature of this topic, no single perspective holds the complete picture. This work represents an effort to piece together available information to the best of the author's ability.

I hope to offer readers a clearer understanding of this intricate and often misunderstood topic of Extra Terrestrials or Non Human Intelligence. Remember, this is a book that is many years ahead of the topic itself. UFO's are now seen as a reality, but we have yet to address its occupants.

This book delves into groundbreaking information that may challenge conventional perceptions of reality. It explores the extraterrestrial phenomenon—a subject that has long fascinated and divided both researchers and the public. I aim to provide a broad visual and profiling overview of the alleged actors at play, their patterns of interaction, and their complex agendas.

Gathering this information has been anything but straightforward. The field is riddled with misinformation, deliberate disinformation, and gaps that make constructing a complete picture difficult. Not to mention the indoctrinated opinion that still haunts the topic, that it's just science fiction. The material in this book is drawn from leaked documents, whistleblower testimonies, eyewitness reports, and interviews with contactees—individuals who claim direct interactions with extraterrestrial beings. Notably, Elena Danaan's contributions in mapping alien species, as seen in her book Alien Races, have been invaluable. Additional insights come from personal channeling sessions with the Arcturian Collective through David Beerda, as well as perspectives from clairvoyants and remote viewers. While these methods may challenge traditional notions of evidence, they provide unique and thought-provoking viewpoints.

Visual depictions of extraterrestrial species in this book are based on descriptions, photographs, and artistic interpretations. These representations have been created using Blender3D. A very few images are AI-generated, though not those depicting the extraterrestrial races themselves. These illustrations serve to help readers visualize the entities and concepts discussed.

The information is shared with the intent of encouraging reflection and independent thought in a world often bound by rigid narratives and polarization. The extraterrestrial question touches on profound aspects of our existence—who we are, where we come from, and what our place in the universe might be.

For entertainment purposes only.

AUTHORS NOTE

I'm beyond excited to share something I feel has been missing for a long time—a visual collection of over 70 known extraterrestrial races connected to our Solar System and their roles in the larger E.T. scenario. Who are they? What are their agendas? How do they interact with us?

If you're reading this, I'm assuming you're already on board with the idea that extraterrestrial beings are here and have been visiting Earth for a long time. This book isn't for those still searching for proof—it's for those who are past that stage and eager to dive deeper.

Back in 2020, during the lockdowns, I was called to take on a massive challenge: teaching myself Blender 3D in order to create highly detailed depictions of allegedly real ETs /NHI.. I spent over 2,500 hours on this project, crafting descriptions of their appearances, alliances, and agendas. I enjoyed every second of the process because of the belief that this information should be out there.

A huge shoutout to Elena Danaan, whose book Alien Races – A Gift from the Stars was a major inspiration for this project. In fact, she reached out to me personally to endorse my work, calling it highly authentic. That meant the world to me because authenticity was exactly what I aimed for.

I truly appreciate every single one of you for supporting my work, whether by purchasing this book, taking my ET course on Udemy, or simply sharing this project with others.

And yes, I'm required to say it: FOR ENTERTAINMENT PURPOSES ONLY.

INTRODUCTION

There are several reasons why this information has been withheld from the public. Since the first edition of this book, interest in this topic has grown significantly, especially online. However, much of this knowledge remains restricted to select groups within military factions, royal circles, political elites, industrial leaders, and religious institutions.

A long-standing “truth embargo” has kept us in the dark—not just about the existence of extraterrestrials but also about the hidden interactions we have had with them for over 70 years. The reasons for this secrecy are complex and will be addressed later. For now, let’s set the stage by examining the current situation.

UFO activity on Earth has been documented for more than 70 years, with sightings increasing in recent times. The biggest challenge lies in verifying their authenticity. With the rise of AI-generated content, distinguishing real sightings from fabrications has become nearly impossible. As a result, UFOs and extraterrestrials remain highly controversial, still battling against skepticism and ridicule. However, from this point on, I will treat the subject as legitimate—this book is not here to convince you; I trust you are already beyond that stage.

I do not believe full disclosure about UFOs and ETs will come from government sources. However, there are signs that this could change, particularly given past discussions during the Trump administration. The technology linked to UFOs is an invaluable asset for the military-industrial complex, and as transparency efforts continue, it is clear that disclosure could have profound implications for our technological future. But the bigger question remains: Who is piloting these craft, and what are their intentions?

Various extraterrestrial races have been observing us for an extremely long time—some for millions of years. The majority of these visitors appear to have benevolent intentions, and they are far more advanced, both spiritually and technologically, than we are. In fact, humanity has benefited from their presence, as certain races have intervened multiple times to prevent nuclear conflict—disabling warheads and tampering with computer systems when necessary.

Many races have been keeping a close eye on us for a very long time, some for millions of years. Most of the visitors have good intentions, and they are far more spiritually and technologically advanced than we are. Humanity has benefited greatly from some races as they have intervened several times to prevent nuclear war by disabling warheads and tampering with computer systems. A few negative E.T. races have also been here and some of them have formed alliances with humans in key positions of power, offering them advantages in technology, access to other planets, and influential positions within the elite’s inner circle. All in exchange for complete obedience to a specific agenda on Earth.

There is a group of corrupt and secretive group within the establishment who have created several Secret Space Programs (SSP) to use E.T. technology and covertly travel off-planet using stargates, dimensional travel, and anti-gravity technology. This is being kept hidden because these programs have been funded through highly illegal activities, tax money, and private corporations. In exchange, they would allow these nefarious E.Ts to abduct humans for research purposes. Negative energy harvesting, ~human trafficking, interplanetary slave labor, and food. Let’s step back to the 1940s. The US military established a special investigation group known as MJ12. However, the public demanded greater transparency on the UFO subject, so the US launched Project Bluebook to quell public outrage.

When the program was terminated, only it went dark and grew to astronomical proportions which again resulted in the creation many more covert programs, and the military industrial factions that had no congressional oversight.. As a result, a large percentage of the military budget is black. Back in 1959, President Eisenhower warned us about the growing power of the military-industrial complex in his farewell speech. Eventually, I believe in 1964, a positive faction of prominent intelligence, military, and positive E.Ts emerged and formed a counter-initiative known as «The Alliance». This was desperately needed because these privatized factions were gaining power.

The Alliance established the highly secretive space program known as «Solar Warden», whose mission was to police our solar system and combat and dethrone other Earth-based SSPs (Secret Space Programs) such as the German «Dark Fleet» and «ICC». Gary Mckinnon, a hacker, demonstrated this existence. On a Solar Warden vessel, he discovered a document pertaining to “fleet to fleet transfers.” He was able to partially download a high resolution image of one massive spacecraft in orbit. We will discuss Secret Space Program later, as well as the small “Greys” who have been heavily involved as working bees for a larger agenda or force.

E.T SPECIES & RACES

It is difficult to define E.T races because races and species are not the same thing. Races can be viewed as genetic hybrids of various species, but species only refer to the original lifeform’s base-template.

According to the “Arcturian Collective,” this galaxy contains seven basic templates of physical carbon-based sentient life. Most races, with the exception of those who have arrived from elsewhere, are thought to be some sort of hybrid genetic mix of these seven. Humans, Greys, Insectoid, Reptilian (dinosaur, reptoid, etc), Aquatic, Avian, and Mammalian. These are the archetypes. As you may have guessed, these are galaxy templates, not Earthbased genetic templates. Lately its has come to light that these were created by a group of highly evolved Extra Terrestrial referred to as “The Seeders”, a group of 24 civilizations. Apparently these beings seed all life throughout various galaxies. They play around with genetics to create various lifeforms. I guess they require a balance of negative and positive in order to address the concept of duality which is hardwired into to source code of the universe. They seeded the human genome in Lyra a long time ago. Most life is carbon-based and oxygen-breathing, which could explain why there are similarities between these ETs and our Earthly animals. It’s a complicated issue, but it’s also based on very simple fundamental laws of physics, consciousness, and nature.

E.Ts come in a variety of shapes and sizes; some resemble small humans with elongated heads, large eyes and no ears. Some appear to be physically quite similar to us, while others appear to be very different. Some are reptilian in appearance, while others resemble birds and some are even aquatic. In addition to them, there are insect-like beings, angels, and spirit-beings that have evolved beyond physicality and into higher densities. Many advanced ETs live in realms/dimensions/densities above ours, and in order to interact physically with us, they must lower their frequency level to match us. This is difficult to grasp because we were never taught this in school. Everything, including consciousness and physical laws, is essentially made up of frequencies. The Universe is a frequency spectrum. The resonance is what will make us aware of things. So, if you want to communicate with someone outside of your frequency band of perception, one of them will have to tune in in order to become visible or physical in 3rd density due to where we reside.

During a channeling session, I once asked the “Arcturian Collective” why so many aliens resembled Earth animals. Their response was that they were designed almost as a joke, bordering on mockery, to make us believe we are superior and that they,- the ETs look like us, rather than the other way around. I suppose it’s human nature to believe that everything revolves around ourselves and that we set the premisses. We do not. About 300,000,000,000,000,000,000 star systems are teeming with life. The upraised walking Five-star template humanoid is common in our sector of the galaxy, and they come in a variety of shapes and sizes. The human archetype is the most common template in our galaxy.

Some E.Ts are from highly advanced worlds and their driving force goes beyond the ego, but solely focuses on the consciousness evolution of the galaxy. Their need for physical possessions is long gone, and what brings them joy is ensuring the universe’s order and supervising their experiments and discoveries. They claim that there is no evil at higher densities. This is because evil has a low frequency, which is compatible with the high densities. Positive E.Ts do not require anything we have; instead, they provide incremental information that we require to progress to the next stage. Some E.Ts are assisting and I believe that if they were not here to protect us, the earth and humans would look very different, possibly with even more draconian structures, chaos, and poverty. Life could be similar to that of the Dark Ages. The most advanced E.Ts are not limited by the illusion of time, as time is a result of our existence in the third density, where linear perception is a mechanism of experience. They can manifest anything they want using various spiritual techniques or technical devices.

Because of the negative connotation of the word “alien” as an adjective, the term “aliens” has lost its neutrality and has become associated with a xenophobic sense of distrust, dislike, and distaste, inducing a cold constrictive feeling of alertness.” We must also distinguish between aliens and extraterrestrials. Alien is something we don’t understand.

For example, Greys are classified as aliens, but humanoid species are only classified as E.Ts. So, is alien something that is not related to us or defined as foreign? E.T is short for extraterrestrial, meaning simply not of this world. Some people use the following definition: Extraterrestrials are not aliens. Aliens are negative beings with no bond to us, and E.Ts are light representatives who protect life and the planets. An E.T is a responsible cosmos citizen, not a stranger stranded among the stars. All of this is up for debate.

A new term “Intergalactic racism” has surfaced because some E.T species are considered more benevolent than others. I am guilty of this too. I will however label them in this way, even though it is unfortunate, it’s necessary to explain the situation we are in. But when we finally realize that we are all one, we will be able to discard these labels. This dense reality is caused by the duality we experience. It’s a metaphysical concept.

According to the Arcturians there are over 500 races currently in orbit around our planet. Why aren’t they making themselves known? Apparently it’s against the norm to interfere with a developing civilization, and a common practice for “visitors” to make sure the civilization evolves at its own pace. Some negatives do not follow these rules, which causes issues because positive E.Ts are more likely to follow the prime directive of no interference. And that prevents them from interfering too much also.

The negatives have extremely sophisticated and manipulative tactics they use to circumvent these “rules”. These E.Ts can enter your mind and access everything in it, much like a computer hacker. It is nearly impossible to plot against them. They incarnate in human bodies, and they take control over the top structure of earth and establish a narrative that can render people unable to think critically. We see this all around us, right? However, recently, some interventions by the positives have been permitted because the negative influence has grown beyond the point where humanity will be able to address the issue on its own.

The energies and playing fields must be leveled. After all, they do consider the Earth a fauna of life and we are not allowed to destroy it.

WHERE DO WE COME FROM?

In this galaxy alone, there are apparently 400 000 human civilizations in various stages of development. According to brave scientists who have done research outside the paradigm of established “academia,” Homo Sapiens is a completely different race than Homo Erectus and Neandertals. Let me explain some alternative views and theories.

We have information from the E.Ts that supports the claim that there have been many cycles of humans on this planet. The first Homo Sapiens originated in Lyra, and the human five-star form (head, two arms, and two legs) is the galaxy's default template. The original and 100% pure humans are less flawed than we are because we have been tinkered with numerous times. Earth human DNA is multidimensional and contains genetic material from 22 different races. Originally the primate race was created by the Pal Taal containing DNA from an additional 10 various ETs, and then they evolved towards Neanderthal man. Later the “Grand Experiment” introduced another 11 genetic sequences. and this eventually became the Homo Sapiens. Since the modern man, other designed DNA modifications have been done through virus infections. The Anunnaki locked our 12-strand DNA to 2 active strands because of our rapid development. These inactive parts are referred to as junk DNA by scientists. However, this is most likely the entire library of our full potential, including abilities such as healing, telepathy, telekinesis, teleportation, and mind over matter.

ancient, and we can only speculate on the location of the first origin of human life, but it is believed to have come from another galaxy. Anyway, in this Galaxy, in Lyra (Man system), four human races were initially introduced.

The four original types of humans are the Noor (Irish-looking giants), the Taal (Mediterranean-looking), the Laan (Cat/Feline features), and the A-hel (Blondes). The majority of the human-looking ETs have been of great assistance to Earth's humanity. As we know, some human races are not positive, but it is clear that the majority of them are benevolent and loving in nature due to our genetic linkage.

“Earth humans suffer from the minority complex, always assuming that anything unknown is superior to you. But you are genetic royalty. You are a mix of 22 types of genetics, and you will soon understand how powerful you really are when your potential is activated.”

Let me clarify something. The three original humanoid types are known as Lyrans, Altairians, and Centaurians. Altairian and Centaurian factions were the first to venture into space before the Draconian invasion of Lyra. However, all human life in this galaxy originated eons ago in the Lyrans system (Man system K-62). Some believe the Seeders (Pa Taal) brought humans from another universe to evolve here in this galaxy. We are

THE E.T INITIATIVE

This incredible story/scenario has its origin in a potential future timeline about 350 years from now. A highly evolved guardian race from the Andromeda Constellation, called the Zenais, identified that negative forces will take over large parts of the Milky Way Galaxy and are threatening to take full tyrannical control over the Milky Way (Nataru). Using their time travel abilities, they pinpointed a critical tipping point and location in the history of the galaxy, which pointed towards Earth in the year 2012. The Zenais sent out a call to different star systems, and a massive star seed envoy program was initiated. Millions of positively aligned off-worlders left their bodies behind in stasis pods to incarnate on Earth in a critical joint effort to influence and inspire to create a new positive timeline for the Milky Way Galaxy.

This effort was led by the Galactic Federation of Worlds (GFW), which aims to improve human awareness and consciousness of the Terran human race. However, negative alien groups, including Reptilians, Grays, and the negative side of the Anunnaki, found a way to covertly invade our planet by tricking key people into giving their consent for a cooperation endeavor. These E.T groups created an intricate takeover plan spanning many decades, with an endgame where humans would all be transformed into non-spiritual hive-addicted apathetic transhumans that would be 100% dependent on technology. The GFW decided to intervene because the people of Earth did not really consent to the intervention by these groups, it was the choice of a few within the power structure.

With assistance from larger more evolved groups, the GFW and Earth Alliance launched a massive offensive against the NEBU and Dracionians. So they finally removed all negative alien forces in 2022 from Earth, the underground bases, the Moon, Mars, Ceres, and other keyplaces. Lately, the last efforts to dismantle the AI grid, the black goo, and toplet bombs seem to have been a success. After these groups have been defeated and rendered powerless, it is up to humans to cast out the small but powerful groups that still want to control the planet, known as the Deep State/Cabal.

As more and more people become aware of the issues on our planet, it will become apparent that something is wrong. When humans decide to remove those few minions that are in control, the benevolent members of other worlds will make contact with us in a respectful manner. They will not want to be welcomed as gods but rather as equals with advanced technology and higher levels of consciousness. This will lead to a future where we can exist in harmony with nature and each other, connect more to ourselves and easily move to and colonize new worlds. This is referred to as the 4/5D timeline. All of this information has been conveyed by Elena Danaan, who plays a vital role in this field of research, as she has direct contact with the commander of a huge spaceship of the GFW who provides her with information on at least 120 species that have had contact with humanity.

CONCEPTS

Positive higher forces and federations watch over our solar system and planet. They cannot officially intervene in the evolution of a race, but they can serve as guides for individuals.

Our world is under the control of a hidden group that some refer to as the Cabal, which has teamed up with an E.T-component. Governments are well aware of this, but due to an agreement with the E.Ts, they have to continue this charade. The pact would ensure that E.Ts could operate freely in the shadows.

We were invaded by the Ciakahrr Empire in the Post-Atlantis era, the Anunnaki in Egyptian times Without our knowledge. A long-running covert war of human consciousness has been raging between the Cabal/ negative E.Ts and the Earth Alliance/Positive ETs.

The Orions and Dracos hold us back spiritually and technologically so that they can easily control us.

For a long time, the CIA has conducted horrifying physiological experiments on humans in order to understand how the human brain can be exploited.

The rouge human cabal has set up underground bases, and provided some livestock for genetic harvesting, allowing for a limited number of abductions for them in exchange for technology.

We have extremely advanced E.T. science/technology and free energy locked up in top-secret projects (USAPS) that are never made public.

We've had secret space programs for 70 years and have traveled beyond this star system. Some of them are 300 years ahead of commercial technology.

The modern media is a tool used by the CIA and others in power to maintain the status quo narrative. (See Project Mockingbird).

Some elite occult circles practice rituals, sacrifices, torture, human trafficking, and cannibalism. These practices are of Off-World origin.

The war for Earth is nearing its end, and with the help of positive federations, we will be free of the invisible chains. Other beings are assisting us greatly in cleansing this planet of all negative influences, and it is believed to be nearing the end of this embargo.

We are multidimensional beings who exist on multiple planes of existence, because our body is only a wessel, but the soul is eternal. Memories are stored I the astral cloud and our DNA is the access key.

Reality follows the flow of energy. We live in a holographic frequency matrix that is part of an experiment, and the matrix is manifested by our own consciousness, but we are purposefully kept unaware of this through the use of technology and mind control.

This Matrix is very sensitive and can manipulate our timelines if greatly infected.

Timelines are possible futures based on our collective consciousness's current energy flow.

The Earth's human race has been genetically tinkered with and consists of 22 different types of DNA. It has 12 strands where only 2 are activated.

We are all connected. We are linked by the pineal gland. Our consciousness is derived from the source. Most of our academic books on Earth's ancient history are incorrect. Long before recorded history, humans were present on Earth.

This solar system is entering a region of the galaxy with a different energy signature, which may cause humans to become more conscious. This will aid greatly in the removal of negative influencers.

The Humanoid template was dumped in a star system far way called Lyra. Humans now exists throughout the universe.

REINCARNATED SOULS

THE ENVOY PROGRAM

Many millions of extra terestrial souls joined an envoy program, which is a large reincarnation experiment with the aim of bringing large amounts indigo children, lightworkers and starseeds to Earth in this time to counteract the negative agenda. Great leaders such as Jesus, Buddha, and the Dalai Lama are examples of highly evolved souls who chose to incarnate here and serve as a lighthouse in dark times. But also paradigmchanging ledgens like Nicola Tesla are examples of this.

On a soul level, we have agreed that we want this experience to grow further. There are approximately 150 000 Starseeds who have chosen to reincarnate in Earth human bodies in order to experience a wide range of emotions and to assist the humans race by sharing their insight from previous lives and be a beacon og light in a turbulent time, and they want to be present for the spiritual and technological revolutions that are taking place. This appears to be the greatest show in the universe.

E.T AGENDAS

Some ETs are simply observing, while others are defending their own "territory" because they truly believe they own the planet. Some of them claim they must repair their genetics by exchanging technology for Terran human DNA. And the races we consider to be malevolent; they use us as cattle to feed off our energy and flesh. There is also the terrifying aspect of intergalactic trafficking of humans by the negative ETs. We are a very valuable commodity to some of them. The currency of the universe has always been genetics. Some of the negative agendas have some really bad intentions. Evidence suggests that for quite some time, a massive human slave trade/trafficking program aided by satanic components and occult mind control has been taking place right under our nose. The indications are everywhere, and we need to make things right again. Slaves are sold or traded with other negative factions as a labor force, loosh generator, sexual slavery, or genetics stock, all of which are extremely valuable to them. These poor souls are missing people of all ages from wars, natural disasters, poor, homeless people living on the streets, refugees, and other individuals who have been targeted. They were all abducted and their faith is unknown. When I was exposed to this information, I felt sick to my stomach and refused to believe it.

These ETs, like on Earth, has undertaken initiatives to forge alliances among species with similar interests and agendas. Because of their equal level of power and influence, the various negatives occasionally form some sort of standoff agreement.

The purest, on the other hand, wish to teach us about our true galactic history, spirituality, technology, and peace.

Positive ETs wish to eliminate these occult/satanic influences and practices, as well as deconstruct an AI grid that is part of the mind control systems. Yes, it seems like science fiction, and I'm not asking you to believe me, but rather to conduct your own research

Why are these paradigm-shifting revelations being kept hidden from the public or not being discussed in the media? We already know that the media is "owned" by some authority and that this information is not available to the public due to prior agreements with the negative ETs. You see, they don't want to be known because it would upset the status quo of human dormancy. And God forbid that people realize their true potential and mature into the state we are destined to reach. These agreements have held us back, and we are at least 100 years behind schedule in technology, and even further behind spiritually. We have not even been informed that we exist in a living universe.

We have holistic technology to solve every problem, but it is either swept under the rug or locked up in unacknowledged special access programs. For more information about this, please look up Dr. Steven Greer. If we do not stand up for ourselves and refuse consent, centralized power structures will become too powerful. Most of the world's power centers, including the Vatican, Downing Street, the White House, the Pentagon, and Cern, are under the influence of these off-world treaties forged in our name by corrupt leaders in order to obtain some of the ETs' leftover technology. That's how pitiful we are. Selling out our own race to develop better weapons. It's a disgrace and highly provocative! There is a lot that needs to be done. However, the so-called Earth Alliance, along with positive ETs, is currently removing these corrupt power structures, and significant progress is being made in this regard. How do we humans deprogram our own minds and step into our own power? Well, stop following orders from authorities who want us to do things that do not sit well with us. We should have realized by now that the centralized powers are deeply compromised and do not adequately represent us. We are humans, spiritually free and sovereign.

POSITIVE ETS

Positive E.T agendas include assistance in raising consciousness to the fifth density level, the removal of the hive-like mind-controlled society we have become, mentally liberating us from negative off-world influence, subverted slavery, and the dismantling of an AI grid. The ultimate goal is to liberate us from the control mechanism and propel us up the evolutionary ladder. There seems to be an incentive that here and now is defined a pivot point in the fight between negative and positive forces in this galaxy.

Positive extraterrestrial beings aim to guide humanity toward a transformative era known as the “Golden Age.” These beings vary greatly in appearance, from humanoid to vastly different, often working together in federations to aid in collective projects. Additionally, highly evolved angelic beings dwell in realms beyond our own, offering invaluable insights into our place in the universe.

Approximately 450 races are believed to be visiting Earth at this pivotal time, with the majority focused on assisting humanity in its spiritual and technological evolution. They carefully monitor our progress, offering guidance through telepathic communication and direct interventions. Some even walk among us as observers, providing support and subtle guidance.

Humanoid E.Ts, predominantly found in regions like the Pleiades, Alpha Centauri, Tau Ceti, and Vega, have played a crucial role in our development. They communicate through dreams, offering tools for real-life application, and advocate for the abandonment of destructive technologies in favor of cleaner, more sustainable alternatives. Despite conflicts and resistance from Earth’s leaders, these benevolent forces persist in their efforts to protect and uplift humanity. Many humanoid E.Ts resemble us closely but may have distinct physical traits such as different skin colors or subtle anatomical differences. They possess advanced spiritual connections and telepathic abilities, often serving as guides and mentors.

Some claim to be future versions of humanity, warning of the importance of synchronizing technological advancement with spiritual growth to avoid past mistakes. Other supportive E.Ts include Greys, Reptilians, aquatic beings, and avian species, many of which share humanoid characteristics and are aligned with positive intentions.

NEGATIVE ETS

Within the realm of negative forces, a distinct hierarchy exists, with the reptilians from the Alpha Draconis star system as the most prominent role. They crave dominance over Earth, claiming to be its rightful owners. They use the small Greys as instruments to impose their agenda covertly. The Dracos, through negative entity attachments known as Archons, have manipulated humanity for millennia, utilizing etheric micro parasites controlled by sentient AI technology. Many races, initially neutral or positive, have succumbed to the Draconians’ manipulative influence.

Another malevolent faction, NEBU, hails from the Orion area, wreaking havoc and aligning with the Draconians while pursuing distinct agendas. This reality operates on a duality concept, urging us to choose negative aspects to make conscious choices.

The negatives lack a strong connection to the source and do not possess the creative capacity of beings aligned with love and light. They exhibit hive mentality and egocentric focus, often driven by dominance and control.

These entities influence notions of hell and the devil, with some associating the Draconian King with “Satan.” Predating modern times, they have manipulated global institutions, exploiting fear, anger, and sadness for sustenance. While adept at interstellar travel and possessing advanced weaponry, their spiritual limitations hinder integration with consciousness.

Recognizing a diverse range of dissenting extraterrestrial perspectives beyond reptilians and greys is crucial. Additionally, societal conditioning fosters fear based on appearances, necessitating open-mindedness and awareness of various viewpoints. It’s important to understand that their actions may stem from a primal drive for survival, akin to humanity’s treatment of the animal kingdom, highlighting the complexity of our moral framework.

MAIN ALLIANCES & FEDERATIONS

Like on Earth, the E.T has engaged in initiatives to create alliances among the species of similar interests and agendas. Sometimes the various negatives form some sort of standoff agreement due to their equal level of power and influence. This has been the norm for as long as life has existed. Here are the main factions that are involved with Earth.

POSITIVE

ANDROMEDA COUNCIL

The Zenetean Council is another name for them. It's a high council of 140 different species that resides in Andromeda. They are spiritually and technologically very evolved, and it is notable that these humanoid operate in the shadows, and are only focused on the goal, not the glory or the spotlight. They recently basically saved us by using their timeline prediction and manipulation technology. apparently they investigated the future and identified a point 350 years in the future (in 5d) where the Orions' structures would basically take over this sector of the galaxy and run it by tyrannic means. They used their technology to map out the path that led to this point of devastation, and its origin was right here on Earth at this time! According to Alex Collier, they presented this to the Galactic Federation and the Council of 5. They agreed that steps needed to be taken before the dark underground presence on Earth reached them. The work closely with the Arcturians, Pleiedians and Sirians

COUNCIL OF SIX

Five races that have been watching Earth's progress since the beginning of time. They have good intentions and have met with numerous human officials. They are of various races and also known as the Orion Council of Light, formerly known as the Council of Nine. They conduct positive abductions to assist humanity in the so-called "envoy" program, which is based on highly developed souls incarnating on Earth as Starseeds. They are to be beacons of light, paving the way for love and light. The council's original purpose was to counteract the Orion influences. The five races are the Emerther, Eragoth, Ginvo, Ore-la, and Redan. The Council collaborates closely with the Galactic Federation of Worlds and the Andromedan Council. They were involved in Terra's defense long before the formation of the Galactic Federation of Worlds, which later joined as council representatives. They have observed your species' evolution to primates, the Anunnaki meddling, the various Terran colonizations from all over the galaxy, the arrival of the evil empires, and the Terran territorial alien wars. The council of Five, now run by the Egaroth, met Terran leaders on many occasions, trying to influence their decision with wisdom, which has always been quite tricky. The Council of Five does not have a rule of non-intervention, such as the Prime Directive of the GFW, as they consider that sometimes intervention is necessary for helping a species avoid fatal mistakes leading to destructive pathways. They last met on Terra with leaders in 1944, and are planning to meet again, openly this time, in the last ten days of August 2013, to discuss the threat of the Orion and Ciakahrr empires, the Cabal alliances, and the aftermath solutions for a clean and free future for the Terran species. The fact that Egaroth runs it enforces the intentions of unconditional assistance to the Terran species and the work of energy rebalancing of Terra's grid.

GALACTIC FEDERATION OF WORLDS

The Galactic Federation of Worlds was established over 4.5 million years ago to prevent inter-dimensional dark forces from dominating and exploiting this galaxy (Nataru). Their main goal is to maintain this galaxy's balance, justice, and peace. It is an alliance of thousands of species from this Galaxy. There are currently over 200,000 members who are either star nations, confederations, or unions. Approximately 40% are humanoids, with the remainder being various types of sentient beings. Most Galactic Federation members are fully conscious beings who serve the polarity of others. Alpha Centauri, Sirius, Andromeda, Arcturus, Lyra, Tau Ceti, Pleiades, and other stars are represented. They are assisting humans on Terra (Earth) in raising our consciousness and awareness of the fact that we have been under the control of the Orions and Dracos for a long time! They inspire us to take the risk of deposing the corrupt leaders on whom we rely so heavily. The majority of them are in contact with these evil entities. They also assist us in deprogramming ourselves, removing physical implants from abductees, and performing a variety of other tasks. But what we should really thank them for is their willingness to fight for us. They have been helping us in removing all of the negative Aliens from this solar system while also destroying their technology for the last few years. This is part of the Andromedan Council's investigation into future tyranny. The federation agreed to fight this war on our behalf. They also train our own soldiers to defend our planet in the future. They recently created an agreement with the countries of the world about how the power structure on Earth should look like, with the help of the Andromedan Council and the Council of 5, and a decision was made about who will build the advanced technology we will need. (Read Artemis Acord.)

INTERGALATIC CONFEDERATION

The Intergalactic Confederation is comprised of 24 Seeder Races, which are considered to be the fundamental species of the universe. These extraterrestrial beings possess an exceptional mastery of genetics and have contributed greatly to the diversity of our galaxy. Among these races are the Paal Tal, who is responsible for the creation of the human lifeform in Lyra. They are impartial observers, intervening only in cases where the laws of the universe are violated. Their jurisdiction extends beyond the Milky Way to numerous other galaxies.

While they may take on extraterrestrial forms, these beings are primarily a consciousness or super-consciousness that has overseen not only our galaxy but others for countless ages. They have journeyed to our solar system to witness the dawn of a new era

- one that involves the liberation of Earth. These entities function at such an advanced level that they do not use language or any other recognizable form of communication to express themselves. Instead, their communication is translated into frequencies for our comprehension.

Despite the efforts of our adversaries to confuse and mislead us regarding the existence of multiple timelines, the reality is that our solar system remains on a single timeline, simultaneously. This timeline is beneficial to the entire galaxy and signals a triumphant conclusion to the conflict between the Terrans, the Federation, and the Orion group. The main goal of the current operations is to secure the current timeline to ensure that the divine destiny is fulfilled.

THE CABAL

Certain extraterrestrial (ET) races have formed alliances with humans who hold positions of power and wealth. In exchange for occult practices and complete obedience, these ETs offer these humans unlimited power, technology, and wealth. These corrupted individuals are commonly referred to as the Cabal. They carry out orders from their rulers either willingly, unwillingly, or due to mind control. Some of them come from the most influential families in the world, such as the Rockefellers, while others are actors, musicians, politicians, and leaders of prominent secret societies. All of them have hidden pacts that the public is not meant to know about.

Have you ever wondered why we know so little about them? It's because of the pact they make and the leverage they have on each other to keep the lid on their activities. Witnesses and whistleblowers have come forward, describing the horrendous acts and rituals they are forced to do, which are then recorded and used as leverage to keep them in line. Nobody dares to jump ship because their life will be destroyed, or their family members will pay the price. It's all based on trust. Once they're in, they are promised wealth, power, and success, but they will also carry the weight of their actions.

These corrupted individuals have formed agreements with both the Draco and Orion Groups, which has led to a stagnation in our society. They have developed several Secret Space Programs (SSPs) that use ET technology to covertly travel off-planet through stargates, dimensional travel, and anti-gravity technology. These programs are being kept hidden because they have been funded through highly illegal activities, tax money, and private corporations. In exchange, these nefarious reptilians are allowed to kidnap humans for experiments, negative energy harvesting, human trafficking, interplanetary slave labor, and food. However, they will soon fall.

THE EARTH ALLIANCE

The Earth Alliance is a group of highly influential people from different areas of the world. They act as counterparts to the Cabal and works with positive ETs.

Some factions thought it was a necessary act to cease the growing power of the deep state and the corrupt and unethical corporations that run this planet. There are about 180 countries represented in this group, and the US Navy Military leads it. Apparently, Donald Trump was brought in as a strong character, and his personality and devotion made him a perfect president to help bring down the old corrupt establishment. There is a Secret Space Program called Solar Warden, know known as Space Force, which is also a part of The Alliance. The drip drip disclosure from whistleblowers about the stuff going on behind the scenes has gained serious momentum. People are accessing intriguing information about the elites and their evil actions. Large operations are being carried out in the shadows to take down the puppet masters and stop the negative agendas. The negative forces own the media, so the only way for the Alliance the to leak operations to the people was through the Q initiative. It was a way to counteract the mainstream propaganda machine and create a movement for truth-seekers. The Earth Alliance are also in charge of the UFO/ET disclosure initiative now, and its been decided that it will be a slow process. Its speculated that a shift is on the horizon that will be potentially be revolutionary and the Earth Alliance was formed to help this transition as smooth as possible. Big Tech, Big Pharma, and Mainstream media are among the most important pieces to break down in order to adjust course. Many claim that its all a show now playing out in order to expose the elite to to un-awaken masses. The end result is going to be the same anyway. So behind the scenes, a battle of dark and light is fought. It has been raging for centuries. It is a war of human consciousness fought with esoteric, biological, and mind control weapons. And the prize is us. This multidimensional chess game has been played for centuries .

ASHTAR GALACTIC COMMAND

A group of independent light warriors from Ashkera in Sirius B, that fight alongside The Galactic Federation. They are stationed on a large ship near Jupiter. The majority of them are blonde humanoids. They are a separatist military faction of Sirius B's Ashtar Collective. Due to Ciakahrr Empire infiltrations and corruption, a rebel faction, primarily humanoids, split from the Ashtar Collective and joined the Galactic Federation of Worlds.

They adopted the name Ashtar Galactic Command to distinguish themselves from the Ashtar Collective. The Ashtar separatists, who were admirably skilled in military procedures, were approached by the Galactic Federation of Worlds and offered the opportunity to establish an outpost on planet Jupiter. The outpost of Ashtar Command in your planetary system is linked to the Galactic Federation of Worlds. They have come to help Earth and humanity navigate the current cycle of planetary cleansing and polar realignment, as well as the birth of humanity from dense-physical to physical-etheric bodies of light capable of ascending into the fifth dimension with the Earth. Sirius appears to be the ASHTAR's epicenter. In the past, the Sirians have fought against the Orion Empire and the reptilian controlled star systems in the Orion sector. They are among the most well-known entities in the Separatist faction of Sirius B's Ashtar Collective. It is not a personal name, as many people believe due to misleading information. However, there are some disagreements about their intentions in ufology.

ORION GROUP - NEBU

NEBU is made up of reptilian, grey, and humanoid civilizations. It is deeply involved in all of the negative activity and collaborates closely with the Ciakahrr Empire and the Earth Cabal. The Orion Group is a Satanic force with a predatory ideology that uses females as slaves or breeders while seeking territorial dominance on other planets through their warring and killing culture. They came here after realizing they were losing a war in their own system of Orion. This crew is a predatory force that is primarily responsible for creating much of humanity's negative ego through Mind Control programming. Through the banking cartels, they have brought financial and debt enslavement to the planet. Furthermore, Tall Whites are blond-looking humans from Orion and Altair who are predatory; this species is responsible for spreading racism, genetic discrimination, genetic experimentation, such as Nazi ideology, and they are proponents of promoting their belief system of "genetic superiority" through spiritually abusive Eugenics methods. This Altair Nordic group was directly involved with Hitler's Germany and World War II. Wormholes are used to travel from here to Orion.

DRACONIAN/CIAKAHRR EMPIRE

A long time ago, a superior race called Tiamtia from another dimension dumped the Draconian genom into the Thuban Star system in Alpha Draconis using interdimensional portals. This ferocious Draco Reptilian species grew into an empire and is made up of various reptilian types.

The Draco race is the most prominent reptilian race and hails from Thuban in the Alpha Draconian star system, and are said to have been the first race to map the universe. They are a large group known for wreaking havoc wherever they go and have conquered more than 500 worlds. The Alpha Draconis are obnoxious and arrogant. They are also extremely intelligent and technologically advanced. As masters of covert invasion tactics, the Dracos always send in less terrifying beings like the Dows Greys, as probes first and use them to establish some sort of relationship with the indigenous species, allowing the Dracos to sneak in through a backdoor. They play the long game because the average life span ranges from 1,800 to 4,100 earth years. They are bent on galactic dominance, are feared throughout the universe, and are widely regarded as the ultimate warrior race by many. Within their system, there are various castes. A warrior tribe. They have engineers and scientists, almost like a hive of activity. Then there's their royalty at the top, who controls and directs everything. Dracos species have the potential to shape-shift and have highly developed Psionic abilities that allow them to possess or enter bodies via consciousness projection. As a result, as they form a Phantom Matrix system of Satanic-based AI-infected entities, many of these Draco entities are misidentified as the devil or mistaken for Satan as an individual figure by people. The Alpha Draconians call themselves Ciakahrr and are regarded as the master reptilian race by themselves and others. They regard humans as cattle and a resource to be enslaved and dominated. They first came to Earth 15000 years ago and truly believe they are destined to rule our sector of the galaxy. The Dracos conquered and enslaved many races, turning them into puppets for the reptilian empire. The Reptilian Dracos have become so genetically mixed that each of the six is a different gender, and they "trend" from male to female. These various "genders" can resemble different species. " The master race is white, and it is known as Royale white. The brown or brown-scaled Nagai is another high-ranking group. They are warriors, smaller and less muscular than the others. To name a few, we have an Iguana-like shapeshifter called Sigma Draconis and the Epsilon Draconis. In Antarctica, two massive underground caverns house massive, densely populated Draco cities. We also know that the largest Draco base was located underground in Vatican City, where they could travel almost anywhere thanks to the advanced tunnel systems built underground. The number of Draco in our solar system was previously comparable to Earth's visible population of 7 billion people; however, the Galactic Federation is rapidly removing them. The Draco Empire has previously been at odds with the Galactic Federation, with no clear winner. They both agreed to put an end to it after millions of people died in the Orion Wars. They collaborate with the Cabal on Earth, or to put it another way, they dictate to the Cabal.

THE ANTARTICA ALLIANCE

NEGATIVE

This is a coalition of factions cooperating. They are in charge of the Jumpgates and the heinous human slave trade. The Dark Fleet (Thule Terrans), Dracos, Orion Grey Collective, and Altairian Collective are all involved. They essentially own the Antarctica content and have massive bases beneath the ice. Admiral Byrde felt the ferocious power from August 1946 to late February 1947. The primary mission of Task Force 68, which included 4,700 men, 13 ships, and multiple aircraft, was to attempt to take down the Nazi factions in the operation Highjump in 1959. I should mention that the Galactic Federation of Worlds has recently cleaned out the bases in Antarctica, and the main jump gate to Mars has been destroyed.

THE DARK FLEET

NEGATIVE

The Dark Fleet is the German Secret Space Program, also known as the Fourth Reich (read Jim Marrs). It is a rogue civilization that operates completely outside of Earth's jurisdiction. High-ranking officers traveled to Antarctica shortly before WWII ended to meet their newfound friends, the Dracos. The Dracos require human assistance in order to activate an ark they discovered beneath Lake Vostok. They joined forces to form the Dark fleet, a space fleet that would do dirty work for Dracos in other systems as well as our solar system. The soldiers were Earth-born humans, despite the fact that many were born into this program. The Germans had no choice but to bow to the Alpha Draconians, who had been on Earth for a long time. The Dracos were acting as advisors and leaders, providing them with technology and protection. Some believe that the Nazis were able to contact them through Maria Orsic's channeling, while other research suggests that the Vril communicated with the Jadaii Anunnaki. As a result, the Dark Fleet kidnapped many people with special abilities and kept them within the Dark Fleet for a 20-year period before returning them at the same time they were kidnapped. They use advanced technology obtained from other worlds. The Dark Fleet primarily patrols beyond our solar system, but it has large bases in Antarctica, the Moon, Mars, and Ceres. They serve as liaisons or as the Draco Empire's extended hand. Its primary goals are to aid in the suppression of rebellions on Draco-controlled worlds and the conquest of new worlds for the Draco Empire. They manage to occupy many key positions of power by using infiltration tactics. The currency of the universe is genetics, and soul scalping is another valuable and tradeable commodity.

POSITIVE

TYPE: HUMANOID

FROM: PLANET MAYA IN THE MAN SYSTEM OF LYRA

DENSITY: 3RD - 5TH

AGENDA: LIBERATION, SPIRITUAL GROWTH AND PROTECTION.

The A-hel are a race of beautiful humanoid E.Ts who are closely related to us. Lyra gave birth to four human races, and the A-hel inhabited the 3rd planet Maia. They exist in the 4/5th density but can also be seen in the 3rd density. Scandinavian-looking, with blond hair, blue to green eyes, and smooth light skin. The A-hel are taller and more muscular than Earth humans, and they are physically strong and spiritually advanced in nature because they have evolved much longer than Earth humans. The A-hel have extensive telepathic abilities as well as other supersensory abilities. They are technologically advanced and have a strong grasp on consciousness technology. Their physical appearance is more refined, and the genders are clearly defined, with females being very feminine and males being very masculine. The eyes are bigger, with more space between them. They develop at an astonishing rate when they are born to adolescents, but by the age of about 16 (Earth years), physical changes slow down significantly, allowing them to remain physically young for hundreds of years.

The A-hel are primarily vegetarians, but they do consume artificial meat on occasion. They face no medical issues because they control their health through mental powers. The A-hel lives for an average of 700 years, but "Elders" can live for 2000 years, grow 14 feet tall, and they have silvery hair. They are incredible artists, musicians, and dancers. The A-hel have also attained spiritual ascension and inner peace. Their skin is super sensitive to sensual touch, so love-making comes naturally to them. Sex is also energy exchange in addition to physical interaction, and since love is more prominent in their society, the A-hel enjoy this very much. The A-hel have colonies throughout the Galaxy, but the majority of them are in the Pleiades. They are, however, inextricably linked to Terran Humans. TAAL

FROM: PLANET OMAN KHERA IN THE MAN SYSTEM OF LYRA

DENSITY: 3RD - 6TH

AGENDA: UNKNOWN

The Taal are a mysterious human race. They are one of the human root races that first appeared in Lyra many years ago. They lived on Oman Khera, the third planet from the sun. They are among our closest genetic relatives because they are closely related races to the A-hel, the blonds. While the A-hel has only pure blonde features, the Taal have a more diverse appearance. They could be classified as South American or Mediterranean. They were originally pacifists who practiced high spirituality. According to Elena Danaan, they follow a very strict code of ethics and may appear emotionless, strict, and monotone to some. They regard the body as inferior to the mind and even an impediment to reaching higher spiritual levels.

Their planet in Lyra were invaded a long time ago, and when the armada of Ciakharr/Dracionian spaceships arrived on Oman Khera, the Taal Royals were able to negotiate a deal with the invaders to ensure the survival of the royal bloodlines. They built several massive space-arches in record time for the people who were escorted to Vega before finally settling in Pleiades. The royals were escorted to the Orion area by the Ciakharrs as part of the deal, and obviously this location would make them very receptive to the Orion influence. They eventually switched polarities and are now more self-serving and allied with the Orion Group and their current location and role are unknown. Other more positive Taal colonies can be found in Pleiades, Vega, Sirius, and Andromeda. The original Taal, on the other hand, eventually settled on the planet Temer in the Pleiades and became neighbors with the A-hel. A few of these Taal were envious of the A-hel and desired to rule their own solar system, so they left Pleiades and settled on Alcyone as their home planet. They are the Taal Shiar, and they have gone rogue only to join the Orion Group. For more information, see Elena Danaans' book Alien Races.

FROM: PLANET EGORIA IN THE MAN SYSTEM OF LYRA

AGENDA: DIPLOMACY, GENTICS ENGINEERS

The Laan are regarded as a positive race and genetic masters. This civilization is respected throughout the cosmic community because of its noble and benevolent behavior toward others. The majestic tall humanoid/feline-looking Laan has muscular features and is a very tall mammalian species. They appear to be a genetic cross between humans and cats. They have a flat nose, large nostrils, and lovely golden hair. They also have small round ears and some sort of fur on their light brown skin. The Laan are tall, standing 12 to 16 feet tall, with light soft fur covering their skin. Everyone is different, with colors ranging from blue to gold and everything in between. Both their eyes and their hair are a rainbow of colors. Even though they have a tail, their upper bodies resemble felines while their lower bodies resemble humans. They originated on Lyra's closest planet to the sun, Egoria, but now live in the Taygethan star system. They have colonies all over the galaxy where they use their genetic skills to create hybrid races. They were the ones who fled their planet when they encountered the massive Ciakharr Armada. Some of them eventually settled a colony on Earth 1 million years ago and began conducting genetic experiments on indigenous hominids. The Ciakharr Empire finally caught up with them, resulting in another lengthy war. The Laani and Anunnaki were fighting alongside each other and eventually managed to redraw the Dracos (Nagai & Ciakahrr) underground, leaving the rest of the Dracos behind. The Laan continue to advance in technologies and genetic engineering to this day, and they are very much included in the Galactic Federation due to their importance in diplomacy. The Lyra Noor is from Tar, the 5th planet in the Man system. When compared to ourselves, the Noor race will be considered giants, and they may be the origin of the red-haired Giant legends. Because of the composition and radiations of their dwarf star, they have reddish hair, green eyes, and sensitive skin. It is critical to understand that we, the Earth humans, are shorter than the average height of the human species displayed in the galaxy. Adapting to the conditions of their new world near Vega, a branch of the colony descendants from the Noor evolved orange hair. The Noor race also came to Terra, where they interbred and became known as the giant red-haired legendary people. They now collaborate with the Galactic Federation of Worlds, to which they belong. Their main colonies are as follows: Pleiades, Alkorat in the Taygetha. Terra, our home planet. Lyra, Elhaziel. Procyon, Eldaru, Dahl, Beta Centauri. Proxima Centauri, Meton. The Selosians are from the planet Selo in Alpha Centauri B, the nearest star system and planetary system to our solar system, located approximately 4.38 light-years from the Sun. They now also inhabit several planets with compositions very similar to Earth, and they run several bases for scientific research and development within the Alpha Centauri star system. The Selosians are a highly intelligent species that speaks several languages in addition to their own, one of which is English. This ancient civilization is still considered one of the most important in the Universe today. They are not human, but rather a more advanced form of humanoids. The Selosians are gracious people who look similar to us but are much taller. They have fair to medium skin tones and blue, brown, or green eyes. Males typically wear tight tops and brightly colored long pants with ankle boots. Females prefer long dresses or tunics with brightly colored footwear. They will be recognized for their ability to harvest universe-energy/lifeforce through the use of crystal technology. They appear to be among the best at this. They are metaphysical masters who have created their own form of space travel that does not require any kind of transportation. They simply project themselves wherever they need to go in the Universe. They are free to travel wherever they want, but they must first obtain the necessary documentation. They use crystal-based technology to heal any type of disharmonic in their bodies. It's a type of metaphysical healing. They have two types of ships visible in the skies of Earth. The first ship is a versatile scout. It has a disc-bell shape and a large lens-like circular wing attached to the underside. It has a diameter of 45 feet (14 meters) and a height of nearly 30 feet (9.1 meters). The second is a command ship that is about 200 feet (over 60 meters) long and shaped like a cigar with a small bulge in the middle. The Selosians will play an important role in our planet's "Transition to Enlightenment" by advancing human space technology. As members of the Galactic Federation of Worlds, they joined the Ummit, Emerther, and Errahil in warning President Eisenhower about the Orion Group in 1954. As we later learned, the Eisenhower administration was unable to halt the ongoing infiltration. The Orion Group had already made an agreement with the MJ12. AGENDA: LIBERATION, TECHNOLOGY EDUCATION

The Metoni are poorly understood, but what we know however, is that they are very active in the Galactic Federation of Worlds work for the earth and its population. Their unique abilities include maintaining diplomacy and peace during transitional periods. The Metoni is also one of the Lyrans races. Tall and, due to their genetic makeup, one of the most genetically compatible with Terra humans. Because they are so concerned with their health, they can live for up to 1800 years. Ethics is a very important aspect of their life because it revolves around that moral rather than laws. The Metonii can communicate verbally, but they prefer telepathic communication. Those from the Centauri System appear to have an advantage in building engineering. They should be commended for their ability to build extremely large ships. They use sound vibration to levitate objects and can travel between dimensions instantly, but this is not teleportation. They are not, however, the most daring. The Metonii are genetically compatible with humans and can even reproduce with them. If you see a large cloud in the shape of a UFO, it could be the Metonii because they cloak their ships, causing condensation to form around the invisible object. Elena Danaan is extremely knowledgeable about this race, and I strongly advise you to purchase her book.

TYPE: HUMANOID

FROM: PLANET ERRA IN TAYGETHA - PLEIADES

DENSITY: 3RD - 5TH

AGENDA: LIBERATION, SPIRITUAL GROWTH AND PROTECTION.

The Pleiadian Taygethans and the Errahil are A-hel humans from Lyra who have found a new home on Erra. This planet is nearly as large as Earth and is one of ten that orbit their sun, Taygetha. Erra is home to approximately 400 000 Pleiadians, who believe that this is the ideal balance for the health of both their people and the planet. Their tight blue/turquoise suits have nanotechnology and anti-penetration properties, as well as environmental and density regulation properties. These suits may appear simple, but they are extremely sophisticated. In terms of education, children's abilities and preferences are identified at a young age, and this is usually the path they take in school. It is critical for them that spirituality and consciousness evolve at the same rate as technology. The Pleiadians view us as relatives and have been keeping an eye on us here for thousands of years. They were once regarded as Demin gods in earlier new age societies, but they strongly oppose this. They have played a significant role in the so-called "Grand Experiment" of creating a superhuman race with characteristics from 22 different races. These characteristics are related to our DNA's 12 strands and the fact that we have only unlocked two of them so far. We appear to have a lot of potential as a race. The Pleiadians exist in the fourth and fifth densities, but they can also manifest in the third. These densities are essentially higher frequencies of existence that are partially outside the visual spectrum of our vision. They communicate with Earth humans on all levels, assisting with disclosure and promoting spiritual growth. They want to influence us in order for us to assist others in their spiritual evolution. They claim that the answers to all our questions are within us, and that if we were more spiritual. We would discover who we truly are: multidimensional soul beings who are all one. They tend to look after us because they are aware that other self-serving races are attempting to exploit or subtly manipulate us. To avoid these actions, they are attempting to teach us how to unlock our potential and inspire us to raise our frequency and consciousness in order to transcend to the fourth density. As negative energies gained a stronger foothold on Earth, the Pleiadians, along with others, played an important role in counteracting negative influence on Earth through sophisticated war tactics. They must, however, adhere to the galactic codex of no obvious intervention. Some of these Pleiadians will go to great lengths to physically fight and battle other ET races in order to protect us. These battles take place in underground bases, in space, and even on planets outside our solar system.

The Pleiadians are important members of the Galactic Federation of Worlds and among our best allies.

AGENDA: HEALING, SPIRITUAL TEACHINGS, GUARDING HIGHER CONSCIOUSNESS

Many are familiar with these wonderful beings as great healers, teachers, and guides. The Arcturian beings are the protectors and guardians of higher consciousness.

They are here to assist in raising the vibrational frequency of Earth in order to accommodate us in the fourth and fifth densities.

The Arcturians live in a unified civilization, and on their planet, there is no ego or competition. There is no such thing as mental challenges or physical illness. They, as a civilization, have previously gone through the evolutionary process that humanity is currently undergoing. Their technology is extremely advanced and is based on sacred geometry.

The Arcturians are divided into three races: Ohorai, Noo-Linn, and Gladeai.

The Ohorai are spiritual teachers with purple-blueish skin, large almond-shaped eyes, and three fingers. They are very thin and have the ability to move objects with their minds through telekinesis, as well as communicate telepathically. They do not eat food like humans because of their ethereal bodies; instead, they absorb energy through their nervous system. They consume an elixir that nourishes their entire being and sleep only once a week. Their sleep allows them to connect with higher dimensional realms of consciousness. These Arcturians live 350-400 years and do not die of old age or disease, as both have been eradicated for these entities a long time ago. Instead, once their spiritual contract is fulfilled, they leave their world. Arcturian Ohorais do not require physical eyes to see. They see telepathically instead and are naturally telekinetic and communicate with their minds. These entities process data much faster than humans and have mastered the "Self" through their own evolution. Living in the fifth density requires the ingredient of love, and these entities have triumphed over the lower fear-based self. They are masters of their bodies, emotions, and thoughts, and they use crystal technology to perform their craft functions. They can manifest physically if necessary, but they prefer to exist in an ethereal state, and they have bases all over the earth, the moon, and other parts of the universe. It's also rumored that they have a starship called "Athena" that circles the Earth and we can safely say they have an interest in Earth. Prominent Galactic Federation of Worlds members.

TYPE: HUMANOID

FROM: TITAWIN IN THE ANDROMEDA GALAXY

DENSITY: 5RD - 9TH

AGENDA: MENTORING, TIMELINE MAINATNCE, SPIRITUAL TEACHINGS AND PROTECTION.

They come from the Andromeda, (not the galaxy) in a star system known as Zenetae within that galaxy. They are 5th density luminous humanoids with slightly elongated bald skulls that resemble Earth humans. They are a Lyran race with skin that ranges from light blue to golden. All Andromedan eyes are slightly larger than Earth humans. The lips are thin and almost light pink in color, while the ears are slightly lower on the side of the head and smaller in size. The hands and feet appear delicate, with long fingers and toes. The men's heights range from 5 feet to nearly 7 feet and the women range in height from 5 feet to 6 feet. They typically wear the multicolored Galactic Federation jumpsuits. The Andromedan women are known for their seductive energies and plump figures. The average lifespan is two thousand years. They are born with memories of previous lives and a 9 strand activation in their DNA. We have two. The Galactic Federation recognizes them for their mastery of all forms of scientific endeavor. According to Alex Collier, the Andromedans are one of 22 races with genetic ties to Earth beings and are our forefathers. Earth's technology has far outpaced our spirituality, which is cause for concern because it usually causes that race to destroy itself. The currency of the galaxy is genetics and consciousness, not money. They believe they are 10 000 years technologically advanced and 50 000 times spiritually advanced than us. We now know that they are extremely skilled at timeline technology and reading probable outcomes and detecting intervention points. They appear to use holographic healing to copy healthy elements from a person's earlier age onto the ill parts of the current body, which is a highly advanced treatment. The average amount of sleep required per day is two hours. They mostly communicate telepathically, but they can also communicate verbally in a Spanish/Italian-like language with more tonal and guttural intonation. They came to Earth 62.000 years ago and stayed for 62 years. Andromedan ships range in size from traditional sombrero-shaped scout ships that measure 50 to 65 feet -15 to 20 meters across to lens-shaped small atmospheric command ships that are a half mile- or 805 meters long, and their motherships can be up to 800 miles long. It's essentially an entire ecosystem within. There are parks, lakes, and vast fields teeming with plants and animals. As a result, many crew members have never visited their homeworlds. The Zenai are outstanding diplomats and valuable members of the Galactic Federation of Worlds.

AGENDA: TEACHING ABOUT OUR HISTORY, HEALTH AND LONGEVITY, PROTECTING ENVIRONMENT.

The Telosi are a 4th density subterranean race that physically resembles Earth humans. Because they are so similar, people frequently confuse this race with the Anshar Agarthans. They produce a dazzling effect by emitting a light frequency. White hair and glistering pale skin. Lovely light grey to light blue eyes. They have a high level of telepathy and spiritual evolution. According to some, they are genetically created from humans who were saved and exiled from reptilians eons ago. However, evidence suggests that the Telosi came from Alpha Century 4, a planet called Selo, and arrived on Earth over 15000 years ago. According to Elena Danaan, they are Extraterrestrials who came here thousands of years ago and discovered a vast system of caverns beneath the region of the Gobi desert and surrounding areas. they have since established a thriving kingdom of 1.5 million people within, one that has been interacting with other-planetary systems up to the present day. According to Hindu legend, vast cavern systems beneath Tibet connect the Agharta systems of Central Asia to the Snakeworld, a multileveled cavern system beneath the southwestern slopes of the Himalayas where the Nagai reptilians live. One fascinating aspect of the Telosi is that they are primarily responsible for the Crop Circles. They use silver disks or spheres and sound technology to accomplish this. They hope to decode the lost science by creating advanced formations. We also know that the Selosi have special abilities when it comes to handling and utilizing crystals. Unfortunately, the Grey and Reptilian Collective have taken control of some elements of this civilization underground.

AGENDA: LIBERATION AND PROTECTION.

The Kahel are a race of humanoid E.Ts of Lyran origin. These people are descended from the A-Hel race, a blond tall humanoid race from Maia in Lyra. They settled on the first planet, Ammakha, in the star system Epsilon Eridani. They terraformed and transformed this monstrous world to suit their needs in order to make it habitable. It developed into a great and peaceful civilization. Their ships are extremely elegant in design, resembling advanced art sculptures. They are Humanoids with slightly different bone structures, crooked noses, smooth skin, and multi colored hair. The Kahel made the decision to protect and preserve the original A-hel Lyran culture, including its education system, casts, spirituality, and scientific knowledge, particularly in genetics. According to Elena Danaan the Kahel, they have sacrilegious humour and have infiltrated Terran society as a foundation for the Galactic Federation of Worlds. They are able to do so due to their resemblance to our species. Valnek, Megan Rose's supposed contact, is of the Kahel civilization and works closely with the Federation, particularly the Taygeta people, in the liberation of Earth. He has provided a wealth of information about the current situation. However there has recently been some debate about whether Valnek is still active or if he has been relocated to another star system due to infiltration. This, however, has no bearing on his integrity. Prominent Galactic Federation of Worlds members.

Skin that is greyish-pink in color, pale eyes, and small, tiny ears. Long robes with high necks were always worn. They are Earth's dedicated protectors along with Ashtar Command and members of the Galactic Federation of worlds. They are excellent diplomats and frequently serve as peace Ambassadors. TYPE: HUMANOID

FROM: ALBIRERO IN TAU CETI

DENSITY: 3RD - 5TH

AGENDA: EXPOSING CORRUPT INSTITUTIONS, DEPROGRAMMING, IMPLANT REMOVAL AND MORE

The Aramani are gentle beings that offer their guidance in our ascension process. They come from Tau Ceti, a planet called Araman. They are a Lyran human race of "Mediterranean" or "South American" looking, tan-skinned humans. Their lifespan is over 100 earth years. Small, and they are very similar to Caucasian humans on Terra except for some distinct bone features on their forehead. Also some slight differences in the pointed ears. They have higher physical 'density' for their size, slightly broader nose, 5' 5" tall on average, and often wear short 'Roman' or 'crew' style haircuts. They require only 1 to 2 hours of sleep per day. Human language is very guttural, like German or Arabic. The Aramani and the Epsilon Eridani are reported to be in alliance with the Pleiadeans, who in turn, according to contactees, have alliances with the Vegans, the Ummites, and others. The Cetian alliance with the Pleiadeans and other societies who have been victimized by the Orion Group are based on a desire to establish a common defense against their reptilian and Grey nemesis. The Cetians are known for their abilities to design some of most advanced ships in the Galactic Federation's exploration fleet. Also considered to have some of best pilots and navigators in galaxy. They have some square ships but their scoutships are diamond-shaped, plasma craft about 200 to 250 feet (61 to 76.2 meters) long. Mother ships are usually the command ships of Galactic Federation exploration fleets. They look like a series of multi-layered blood cells in stacks of 20 to 50 cells, and vary from 4 miles to 44 miles (6.44 to 70.84 kilometers) in diameter. DENSITY: 3RD-6TH

AGENDA: TELEPATHIC TRANSFER OF TECHNOLOGY

The Ummit/Ummites lives on Wolf-424, planet Ummo, 14,6 earthly light-years away from your system. In general, that is not too far away. The Ummits, who are descendants of the Lyran A-hel race, are very involved in assisting us. They are also related to the Lyran Noor races and the Vega humanoids. Ummit have a distinctive high forehead that distinguishes them from the other Man races. When compared to Earth humanoids, the Ummits' eyes have an unusual facial proportion. They are mostly blond, with a lifespan of about 200 Earth years. The Ummits are actively collaborating with the Galactic Federation of worlds on a scientific program to aid in the development and integration of Earth sciences. The non-intervention rule applies to level 1 civilizations as Federation members (level 2 is interstellar travel). They get around this by contacting civilians, often technically gifted professionals who can understand the content of the messages. They do this rather than contacting official government-controlled scientists because they learned their lesson a long time ago. They disseminate detailed technical information about various technologies and theories in order to advance scientific knowledge. They want to inspire our society with new ideas and influence innovative science projects without violently disrupting a species' growth dynamics. The Ummit contributes to global solutions to new scientific paradigms and the development of environmentally friendly technologies by sharing technical information, transforming scientific culture, and providing global education. They are known to have discoidal ships.

They arrived on Earth in 1973 after receiving a radio transmission and deciding to investigate. The Ummites sent the following message to a Terran contactee:

"We have studied your science, culture, history, and civilizations for the past 30 years. All of this information has been carried from your Earth to the planet Ummo in the form of data-coded titanium crystals. We have shown you our culture and technology in purely descriptive form, so you cannot convert or practically realize them. We did this because we are saddened by the fact that you continue to use your sciences primarily for war and the destruction of your own selves. You're like kids playing with horrible, dangerous toys that will destroy you. We have no options! A cosmic law states that each world must forge its own path in order to survive. You've chosen the second option. You are annihilating your species and contaminating your atmosphere and seas, and the damage is irreversible. We mourn your insanity and recognize that the only solution lies within yourself. We can't see far into your future because your mind is completely unpredictable and capricious, bordering on paranoia. As your cosmos' elder brothers, we long for your salvation with all our hearts. We can't destroy your lovely blue planet, a rare atmosphere world that floats majestically in space and is teeming with life. It is entirely up to you".

The Apunians are a tall, attractive Nordic race with high aesthetic standards. Very blonde and tall, 7- 12 feet tall and in great shape. Almost seamless skin with distinct gender characteristics. They come from "Alpha Centauri" and occasionally make physical or holographic contact via artificially generated, visible space-time connecting energy bubbles shaped like half domes. There are indications that some of the Centauri system's humans are genetically created from humans who were saved and exiled from the reptilians. They are artificially created environments in which we and our physical reality can interact with other beings and physical realities to varying degrees. They consider all species to be their friends, and they occasionally extend invitations to meet with specific people on Earth. They have a unique ability with certain types of technology and are considered very respectful and protective of Earth humans, as well as assisting many poor people. According to Giorgio Piacenza, the majority of encounters take place in South America.

AGENDA: LIBERATION, SPIRITUAL GROWTH AND PROTECTION.

The Carians are a race of birdlike Beings who now live in the Caryoun star system. Some claim they are the first sentient beings, while others claim they are descendants of the Laan human race from Lyra who migrated to the Orion sector and settled on a tropical planet. The conditions on their original planet were different, and they had to hybridize with local species to adapt, birds being one of them. As a result, they now appear as a blue feathered humanoid with wings. They still value their Man System culture and traditions. They are tall, ranging in height from 10-15 feet. You may have heard of the Blue Avians from Corey Goode. Even though his depiction may deviate from this one, these are supposedly that race. Cryptic Chronicles claims to be the creators of the reptilian race Alpha Draconis, but this could be a different species. According to other sources, 45 Carians first arrived in this universe during its creation to assist the founders in overseeing the universal principles. They were etheric, above 5th density, at the time, and needed to develop physical bodies from the life forms evolving on the planet's surface. As time passed, they began to experiment on certain reptiles that lived on their planet. They eventually mixed their own genetics into them, resulting in the first reptilian being, part Carian and part reptile. They are known as the Draconian Race.

So there are different perspectives on this species, but we believe they are positive and part of the Galactic Federation of Worlds.

AGENDA: EXCHANGE OF CULTURES

The Roswell E.T, later dubbed EBE1 for “Extraterrestrial Biological Entity,” is the inspiration for the name EBEN. They are now residents of Planet Serpo in the Zeta Reticuli I system. According to Elena Danaan, they left their original planet, Azrata, which is also in the Zeta I Reticuli system, because their planet’s orbit was changing, and it was gradually drifting closer to their sun. This was caused by interference from a nearby comet’s passage, resulting in an increase in volcanic activity. The Eben are a curious culture with a peaceful culture, calm and caring people in general. EBE’s civilization has a typical lifespan of 350 to 400 years. The Eben are not Greys and do not share genetics with the other Greys of Zeta Reticuli. They are a completely different species. The majority of Greys have reptiloid DNA, but the Eben do not. They are shorter in stature than the Solipsi Ra species, reaching a maximum height of 1.30 meters. They have a small nose and a thin mouth, as well as four-fingered hands and feet. They have a benevolent appearance to them. When they leave their environment, their eyes are large and oval, green or blue, and they wear dark protective lenses. Some of them have light brown or even pale blue skin. Their skin is also very thick, like leather, because they evolved on a hot planet with harsh conditions. For cultural reasons, they prefer blue clothing. Their atmosphere was hot and carbon-rich, and it was to this environment that they adapted. They altered their new planet’s atmosphere to meet this requirement. Their ships are discoidal, with high modules above and beneath, flat-roofed. In addition, it is believed that the EBENs were the occupants in one of the three crashes in New Mexico in 1947. Some speculate that it was the Zetas, but there were several crashes that year, so this is just speculation. Information from Elena Danaan’s Alien Races and Len Kasten’s Project Serpo.

They have large blue eyes hidden beneath dark eye covers. Apparently they have only 1 gender, and reproduce by cloning. The nervous system is based on electrical impulses. One thing to keep in mind is that this is the race that came to warn Eisenhower about the Do-hu Grey and Ciakharr agenda in 1954. As we know, humans discarded this information, and here we are. There is a group of five races known as "The Council of Five," of which the Emerther are a prominent member. For as long as we can remember, these races have been protecting Earth and humans. The Egaroth can exist in extremely high densities, up to the ninth, where they can protect themselves from negative interference. Negative energies are not possible above the sixth density. Most negative races will be unable to reach higher than the fifth density. They have the ability to shapeshift but rarely use it. They seek out areas of conflict and help to balance the energies. AGENDA: SEED LIFE WITH FREE EXPRESSION, THEN OVERSEE DEVELOPMENT.

The Pa Taal are a very ancient feet tall humanoid race known as the builder race, founders, and Seeder race. They are the oldest of theses Seeder Races. The Paa Taal consists of four races: Ainu-Ra, Mem-Ra, Shin-Ra, and the youngest, Ashand. The first three are referred to as the Golden Ones or the shining ones. These three races initially existed only in 12D, but they eventually learned how to manifest into physical forms that resemble 9-12 feet tall handsome elves. According to Alex Collier, we fell into the concept of time before 21 billion years ago, when 3rd density physicality did not exist. To play this game, the Paa Tal created the third density. The Paa Taal created life forms capable of evolving on their own, with free expression and the ability to choose free will, with the goal of serving and preserving it. Some believe they are tall, light pastel-colored hybrids with large eyes and an elongated skull. The Paa Taal are of high density, but can manifest in our lower realities whenever they want. They brought life to Gaia/Earth 500 million years ago and stayed for 300 million years. After they left, they kept a watchful eye on Earth for the Almighty. They have enormous motherships. This collective group of conscious beings has incarnated here to guide us back to the frequency of love during this time of upheaval. Their job is to maintain the vibration of love, because when regressive E.Ts quietly invaded Earth, they began to shift the vibration of our planet. They changed everything on the surface over thousands of years due to their intense dominating and controlling consciousness. If these E.Ts had not invaded, our present and future would be very different. According to information from DR. Michael Salla, they had a colony here on Earth, where Antartica is now, but it was a tropical area at the time. This was a prosperous and peaceful civilization. They left some high-tech structures or arks beneath Lake Vostok in Antartica to be hidden beneath the ice and discovered by us in these times. However, conscious DNA activation is the only way to unlock these technologies. It was locked as of April 2022, and the ice is rapidly melting. The Paa Tal has arrived now to help us get back on track and realize that we can empower ourselves to change from what is to what we truly desire membership of the Intergalactic Confederation, also known as the Super federation.

AGENDA: CONSCIOUSNESS AND GENETIC MANIPULATION, ASSISTING IN ABDUCTIONS

They are Praying Mantis beings from the Sombrero Galaxy M-114 and can exist in densities ranging from 3rd to 9th. They are the rootrace for some of the Mars insectoid for instance. These insectoids are frequently seen doing hands-on work in abduction scenarios. According to author Len Kasten, they are tall, green, and resemble the Praying Mantis insects found on Earth. These intelligent beings have an exoskeleton and can bend their joints in strange ways. They can grow to be 9 feet tall and are extremely telepathic, but they also communicate with clicking sounds. They are hive minded, mentally powerful, rational, and calculated. It's natural to think they're emotionless because they don't have any facial expressions, but this isn't the case. Tony Rodriguez had an encounter with a Green Mantis on Mars who took pity on him. This encounter is detailed in his book, Ceres Colony Cavalier. They believe in the cosmic law of one and that we are all one. The Akhara Mantis lays eggs as most insects do. They are masters of frequenzies and geneticists. While they occasionally appear to be malevolent, it is more accurate to say they are neutral. They can manipulate consciousness, and they have their own ethics based on logic, and they only look after their own interests, making decisions that benefit their own race. They are very interested in the soul aspect of consciousness. Because of their genetic abilities and timeline- and dimension manipulation abilities, they are sought after by the Grey Collective and Orion Alliance to assist in their experiments. So, while the lower density Mantis beings are hostile to us, the higher density Amhara are helping to raise Earth's consciousness. They appear to us as light beings with a mantis outline.

AGENDA: LIBERATION AND PROTECTION.

Elena Danaan unveils intriguing insights into one of the Seeder Races known as the Mora-Triomme in her third disclosure book, the Seeders, that the Mora-Triomme are among the 21 seeder races, originating from the NGC 6745 galaxy visible through the Lyra constellation.

The Mora-Triomme's unique characteristics, emphasizing their status as amphibian humanoids with remarkable psychic abilities. The book describes them as telepathic beings whose vocalization, resembling a mono-chord chant, possesses the power to heal, dismantle, create, and even open interdimensional vortices.

Categorized as a Seeder Race that hasn't directly contributed to our genome, the Mora-Triomme nonetheless maintain a significant presence on Earth. Danaan discloses that several hundred envoys (incarnations) from this species are currently making living among us, coinciding with the perceived rise in the overall frequency of our planet.

These envoys, according to Danaan, play a crucial role in humanity's evolution by serving as guides, aiding individuals in discovering their inner voice and soul song. She further elucidates on a distinctive organ located in the Mora-Triomme's chest, capable of producing a mono-chord sound identified as an activator. This sound purportedly has transformative effects, such as decluttering auras, activating DNA, illuminating "DNA's light in the cells," and restoring any unconscious connection to Source that may have been severed or altered.

Each of the 24 Seeder Races bestows a unique gift upon humanity, with the Mora-Triomme's gift being their transformative sound, a potential catalyst for unlocking the latent potential within individuals.

AGENDA: MILITARY DEFENSE AND GUIDING US TO THE NEXT DENSITY

The complex triple star Ashkera star system are the home of Greys, Reptoids, Amphibians, Insectoids, and all of the Hybrid sub-species. This system shelters a variety of cultures as the Ashkeru star system had/has 12 planets, offering an endless variety of environmental conditions. During the time of this story, the planet of Morga was occupied by indigenous Greys and the newly colonizing human group from Lyra that eventually became T-Ashkeru. They are masters in the science of genetics and a cross-breed of Taal from Lyra and local Greys. They have pale skin, are lower than human, with more slanted Asian looking eyes. The Ashtar Galactic Command is a separatist faction of Sirius B's Ashtar Collective, primarily of the T'Ashkery race. They are highly skilled soldiers whose purpose is to protect this Solar system from negative forces. Due to Ciakahrr Empire infiltrations on their homeworld, a significant portion of the ethically aligned Ashkeru separated from the Ashtar Collective and sided with the Galactic Federation of Worlds. These were military experts, and the Galactic Federation of Worlds offered the Ashtar separatists assistance with operations in the Terran Sol system. They constructed a large and highly advanced space station to serve as an outpost near Jupiter. The outpost of the Ashtar Command in your planetary system is linked to the Galactic Federation of Worlds. "Ash-Tar" is a title that means "Command" and is used as well as "High Commander". It is not a personal name, as many people believe due to misleading information. In the past, the Sirians have fought against the Orion Empire or the "Unholy Six" reptilian star systems in the Orion open cluster. They are among the most well-known entities in the Separatist faction of Sirius B's Ashtar Collective. According to Elena Danaan, they are here to help Earth and humanity navigate the current cycle of planetary cleansing and polar realignment, as well as act as a policing force of the Solar system. They also assist in humanites transition from dense-physical to physical-etheric bodies of light, capable of ascending into the fifth dimension alongside the Earth. Their ships are described as high-tech, with mind-surveillance systems that keep negative entities and energies at bay.

On Saturday, November 26, 1977, our world received a critical message. Andrew Gardner was delivering the early-evening news on Southern TV when the picture became wavy, followed by a strange buzzing noise, and finally a distorted voice. Vrillon, an Ashtar Galactic Command representative, introduced himself. The interruption ended after nearly 6 minutes, and transmissions resumed normally.

It is well known that there is some debate about the true intent of the Ashtar Command. Some contactees, however, swear that Commander Ashtar is a very loving, tall, and handsome-looking Nordic being, not the Sirius B, T'ashkeru.

AGENDA: UNKNOWN

The Hyadeans are a colony of Lyrans fleeing the Ciakahrr Empire's invasion of Lyra, more commonly known as the Lyrans Wars. Unlike the other Lyrans groups in the Pleiades and Vega systems, these humans settled in the Hyades star cluster, 151 light years from Earth. They established colonies in the constellations Theta 1, Theta 2, Gamma Prima, Delta 11, Epsilon Ain, and Alpha Taurus. The Hyadeans are genetically identical to the A-hel, but some of them were of the Taal race. They interbred with other Lyrans colonies over time. The Lyrans worlds were racially diverse, as were the four large ships that left the systems to flee the Ciakahrr Empire's invaders. These ships were more akin to arks, transporting plants, animals, people, precious minerals, and a variety of other cultural elements. Our forefathers didn't have much time to prepare because the Reptilian threat had been looming over them for some time. The Lyrans worlds were aware of the impending disaster, but they chose to fight to protect what was rightfully theirs. The Hyades chose to remain neutral and withdraw from galactic diplomacy, preferring to cultivate peaceful isolation. Apparently they almost never leave their worlds.

Because their mission is always scientific, these Greys are not negative, but rather neutral. They have no desire to rule. They are thought to have escaped the Orion influence, unlike most grey races, and thereby remain pure. The Graysli are about the same height as Terran humans, and they have fur, light smooth hair all over their bodies. They have some reptiloid genetics, and they used to have six genders, but that has now been reduced to two. According to Elena Danaan, they wear biometric dark lenses to protect their eyes, as do most greys. They have been closely watching Earth and its development for scientific reasons, but have avoided abductions in order to avoid conflict with the NEBU and the Ciakahrr Empire, both of which believe they already own the planet.

AGENDA: SPIRITUAL GROWTH AND PROTECTION.

The Anshar are a 4th density ancient breakaway human civilization that lives in the Agarthan Network within the Earth. We wouldn't be able to find them if we dug around in there. Because they are 4th and 5th density, they do not exist in our reality. In their original timeline, the Agarthans are A-hel humans from the future. Long ago, in Atlantean times, a human group from the Pleiades decided to settle on what is now known as Mars, where they would live for many millions of years and later play an important role in our local history. Another branch of them arrived on Earth and has been here ever since, surviving many cycles of civilization and disaster. As a result, this Pleiadian group gradually moved underground, establishing the first human underground cities in what became known as the Agartha Network. The Agartha Network is vast, and their capital, Shamballa, is located beneath the Himalayas. Tellos is a large city in California that is located beneath Mount Shasta. The network stretches around the world, with entry points at the poles as well, but all exits are well guarded. Admiral Byrd confirmed this. They have their own ecosystem, complete with rivers, trees, food-filled fields, and a plethora of animal life. They also have their own crystal technology, which mimics sunlight. They've stationed their cigar-shaped, egg-shaped, and saucer-shaped crafts inside the massive cavern beneath central South America. Their craft, as well as all of their technology, is powered by their civilizations' mass consciousness, and some say via crystal energy technology. They are very good at time travel. Some kind of light-emitting fungus provides them with emission light. Matrimony is not practiced by the Anshar. They instead form family groups and raise each other's children. Another oddity is that they regard sexual intercourse as an energetic exchange. The Anshar survive on plant and fungus life because they have large gardens, many acres in size, where they grow all of their food. Their population is currently in the millions, but they are extremely wary of the general public on the surface.

The Koldasi are very telepathic and quite intelligent. Their skin is light green, but the most distinctive feature is the two sets of tentacles that come down from each side of their heads. They have portal technology that the GFW uses, and in exchange, they mine certain materials that are used to stabilize the connection with other dimensions. They live in a bright environment, according to a Koldasii Starseed that contacted me. She's had many astral experiences with them, and it is her understanding that they are a separate species, although it is unknown which rootrace they are of. They discovered a perfect planet and terraformed it to meet their requirements. It was given the name Xylanthia. The strong gravitational pull of Ashkera and the dense magnetism of stars Thula and Emrya is an odd combination that reflects the type of life-forms found on Xylanthia. It is an incredible and unpredictable world, heavily influenced by the never-ending light conditions of three stars and dominated by oceans. It is a diverse and beautiful aquatic world. These ant/bug-like creatures have a glossy outer skeleton. They have many extra appendages and joints, giving them an insect-like appearance in nature. Their face have some humanlike features, but with golden/reddish eyes.

This species, like ants, is based on a hive mentality. They communicate through Telepathy but can also use crackle noise to signal. The Amhara Antbeing lays eggs.

Some speculate that these are hybrids. The egocentric viewpoint is what distinguishes insectoids. They are not evil; they are simply very rational toward themselves. They are always concerned with their own welfare, but this does not imply that they are evil, only that they are self-centered. They do not work for the Orion Group or Reptilians, as many other insect races do. All Mantis and antbeings are known to be master scientists, and they mostly work on their own projects. The Afim will not colonize Terra; they are merely observers. Their technological level of development is such that they can get here to Terrain in just twenty minutes, and when they are close to humans, they can remain invisible if they want. ROLE: DEFENDERS OF THE GALACTIC FEDERATION

I'd like to give full credit to Eleena Danaan for the following information. Negumak is the name of their planet, in the Antarian system. They name themselves after their homeworld, but the original name of their race is Gnomopo, one of the oldest known races in existence, and the predators you don't want to cross on your path. Tall and large, looking insectoid, they are not humanoid-based, and their genetic composition is, to our knowledge, neither reptile, grey, nor anything else living in this galaxy. Negumak Gnomopo are unique. They are androgynous and reproduce by laying eggs, which they fertilize once the eggs have reached a certain level of maturity. They are formidable warriors and terrify everyone, and they are know to be the only enemy of the Ciakahrr (Draconians), as they are the only race to eat reptilian flesh. That is the reason why they are the Ciakahrrs' nemesis. They are the only predator above the Ciakahrr in the food chain of this galaxy Negumak has the power to wipe out the Reptilian race from existence. Their ships are made of a dark, glossy metal and have very elaborate shapes. Negumak performs abductions on Terra, and the purpose is unknown to everyone. All we know is that they use mind control very skillfully and release the captives afterward. Terran governments are well aware of their existence since the first contact was made in 1989. The Ciakahrr (Draconians) and Orion occupation forces warned the Terrans about them, scaring everyone immensely and instilling fear regarding the future of humanity. The Cabal fears them... and just recently the Galactic Federation won their alliance and there is no stronger force in this galaxy they say.

TYPE: HUMAN GREY HYBRID

FROM: UNKNOWN

DENSITY: 3RD - 6TH

AGENDA: GENERATION HYBRID RACE, CONTACT PROTOCOL, GUIDENCE

The adored Yahyel is a hybrid ET race that is said to be descended from a Lyrans human species. Others claim they are a Grey type hybrid composed of 20% Grey DNA and 80% human DNA. The Yahyels have a lifespan of 5000 earth years and are highly technologically advanced. They have a strong interest in our species; in fact, the Yahyel, along with the Pleiadians, are probably the most prominent of all the alleged aliens who interact with Earth and have feelings for humanity. Some claim the Yahyel live on large spaceships, while others claim they live on a beautiful planet where they coexist with all forms of life. Others claim them to be from Earth's future, just like the Sassani. Clearly, there is some contradictory information here. The Yahyel teach us how to live in harmony with the Earth and with one another, and they remind us that we are magnificent and loving beings. In some ways, they are bringing timeless knowledge from outer space that will help us understand how to fully enjoy our living space and the inner-peace of our hearts. They're a graceful race, with every movement smooth and deliberate. They have a wide range of appearances, just like people on Earth, with different skin tones, eye colors, and so on. The Yahyel's most noticeable physical difference from humans is their large, vibrant eyes with huge pupils that vary in unique abstract colors. Despite being shorter than humans, with smaller ears, thinner lips, and only four toes, they have the most human-like physical appearance. The Yahyel are not as old as other alien races like the Arcturians or the Sirians, but they are still related to them. Their great love and affection for humans stems from their genuine belief that humans are their ancestors and parents. This is due to the fact that our DNA was used to create them and constitutes the majority of their hybrid genetic code. According to E.T. lore, the Earth human template is one of the most adaptable and versatile races in the universe, which is apparently why aliens love our DNA so much and like to abduct us. Despite the fact that they are a hybrid of us, they are visually distinct from Earth humans. The Yahyel have a harmonious relationship with their technology. Never allowing it to harm their home worlds or the population's well-being. Pregnancy in Yahyel women is similar to that of humans, lasting approximately 7-8 months. They eat, sleep, dream, and value life and the present moment together in Yahyel society. They rarely enjoy the pleasures that life has to offer on their own. This ET race lives on two Earth-like planets but has never shared their names or location in the universe with contactees. Despite the fact that they have stated that their home worlds are quite close to Earth in terms of interstellar distance. As the driving cultural influence behind their civilization, the Yahyel value harmony, balance, and inner peace. One of their most fervent wishes is for humanity to remember who they are and the heights of achievement we've reached in our far-off past. When they finally establish open relations with us on Earth, they will tell us about their history, as well as our forgotten past, where we came from, and how we got here. According to Darryl Anka's Bashar-Channel, they want to be the first to openly present themselves before all Earth civilizations and introduce themselves as our galactic cousins. They want to be the ones who teach us timeless knowledge about the universe and guide us as we take our first steps back into space. Information have surfaced of late that indicate that we have to be cautious as they are also into a hybrid program of humans and themselves. If they introduce a grey human hybrid race into our world without our permission, it could be a Trojan horse. It's important to remember that the Orion Greys have used this strategy before.

SASSANI

AGENDA: LIBERATION, SPIRITUAL GROWTH AND PROTECTION.

They are a crossbreed of Greys and humans, and are related to other hybrid races like Mazani, Yahyel, Shalanayah and Plahyel. They are smaller than humans, with a maximum height of 5 feet, but they can move much faster. They have paler skin than humans and larger eyes. Males have no hair and females have white hair. Both sexes have slightly larger eyes than we do. They now use time travel to visit us. Their planet, Essassani (Place of Living Light), is near Orion and has a population of 230 million people. Eclipse, Epiphany, and Epsilon are three AI spheres orbiting the planet. This world exists in a parallel dimension, and the inhabitants claim to live on giant ships above the planet. All advanced races have synchronistic civilizations. There is no need for governments; they operate on an individual and group basis through networks. Individuals or groups provide a necessary service in such a way that no monetary or barter system is required; everything is provided for free. Their way of life is always 'very spontaneous, very joyful, and very ecstatic. They mostly merge energy fields when they want to exchange love or have a baby, though because they are quasi-physical, it's believed they can have physical sex as well. Darryl Anka channels Bashar, and according to Bashar, the Sassani have arrived are from a distant future because they need to repair their genetics in order to create a new hybrid race capable of reproducing. They paid the price for allowing technological advancement to run wild, while their spiritual development progressed much more slowly. They passed the point of no return and have effectively destroyed their own genetics. As a result, they appear to have evolved into a grey-like being. So they went back in time to take people and collect vital samples in order to create a hybrid race from this time period. This will be known as the sixth hybrid race, according to them. But is this ethical according to Earth standards? Anyway, they believe they can reverse their faith and in exchange for our willingness to help them, they will help us avoid making the same mistake and, at times, act as mentors and guides for how to solve life's puzzles. They have ships that are diamond-shaped or circular. The Essassani live for approximately 300 years. They die consciously, with their eyes open, at the appropriate time to move on and expand. The body does not decay; it instantly transforms back into universal energy.

As previously stated, they are developing a hybrid race, which may appear fascinating. However, we must keep in mind that this could be a disguised attempt to infiltrate us. I personally spoke with one well-known human hybrid who was once a part of this hybrid agenda. She jumped ship and resolved to tell the truth. And, in her opinion, the Sassani are devious in their approach. If they introduce a Grey human hybrid race into our world without our permission, it would violate the Prime Directive could be a Trojan horse. Some Orion Greys have used this strategy before.

The hybrid children, aka the sixth hybrid race are the result of a long-running breeding program carried out by the hybrid races Sassani, Mazani, Yahyel, Shalanayah, and Plahyel. Its was allegedly set in motion in order to save their own existence. The Sassani are a 50/50 mix of Greys and Humans, and the Yahyel are even more human, so hybrid children are known as the sixth hybrid race, and are genetically very similar to Earth humans. It has something to do with compatibility. These abducted humans had agreed on a higher soul level to participate in the agenda to awaken humanity to our infinite expressions and reunite us with our galactic family. Children who can feel and express empathy for others, are intelligently gifted, and live much longer lives than humans: those who embody the best of both our and their species. The goal of this program is to build a bridge between Terrans and E.Ts, and this is supposed to be the best way to do so. However, there has been some pushback on this Grey hybrid agenda. Some believe this is trap set by the Zetas to infiltrate or invade us once more. After all, even though they claim it's a soul contract, we haven't given our consent in this life.

The Anunnaki is definitely one of the most controversial races among UFO enthusiasts. Some claim that they have a lot of hair and a long beard, while others describe them as bald with white or dark skinned. There is believed to be great diversity within the Anunnaki group themselves. They are cold-blooded, and it's thought they may have various characteristics, including reptoid and human qualities. They are divided into two genders, male and female, and reproduce by laying eggs. Apparently they are taller and more muscular than us. The Anunnaki are masters of genetics and have created numerous species. Due to their technological advancement, they possess destructive weapons that are feared throughout the galaxy. They have many colonies and do not follow any rules anywhere. The Lyran race and the Ciakahrr Empire regard the Anunnaki as enemies. The legend of the Anunnaki has even influenced Greek mythology, with Gods such as Poseidon and Zeus being based on their mythology. According to some sources, the Anunnaki were created during the Orion Wars, which pitted the Orion Empire against the Galactic Federation. The Sirians intended to create a common ruling dynasty by the end of the war by fusing the genetics of humanoid members of the Orion Royalty - reptilian, human hybrids, with high-ranking Federation pure human members. This plan resulted in the creation of a new royal hybrid race, the Anunnaki. However, due to their diverse heritages, they were a race divided from the start, making it difficult for them to unite as one family or adhere to a single set of principles.

The Anunnaki settled on the planet Nibiru in the Immaru star system (Aldebaran), which exists in a parallel dimension. They were able to traverse dimensions at will by utilizing portal technology found in the Orion system. In pre-Egyptian times, a group of Anunnaki arrived in Mesopotamia and discovered the presence of Draco reptilians. The Anunnaki, with the help of another humanoid race known as the Selosi, defeated the Reptilians and became the new rulers of Earth. Around 350,000 years ago, they founded their colonies and built the first cities with large palaces and other structures, such as spaceports. The Nibirians, as they are now known, adopted a monarchical system that they would later establish on planet Earth, with Anu as the highest authority.

The Nibirians renamed themselves Anunnaki (A-nun-na-ki), and the word Anunnaki can be translated as "human-like". The main reason for the Nibirians' return to planet Earth was to begin project expansion and colony formation. They saw our planet as a prosperous place that should be included in their new dominions. They discovered that it was rich in raw materials and were interested in mineral extraction, particularly gold, copper, and silver. They even established large mining deposits in many parts of the world. Some ETs, such as Bashar, claim that the Anunnaki also genetically limited our DNA to two active strands. Others claim they came to Earth to mine gold to save their own planet, Nibiru, and left as soon as the job was finished. The reasons for their arrival on Earth remain unclear. Recently, a controversial turn of events occurred as Enki, the son of Anu, returned to this solar system to redeem himself from karma. His actions during his last visit were labeled as those of an evil ruler, and he now wants to make things right. This could be related to the times we are in and the ultimatum of polarity that many races are facing to ascend to new realms.

There is to this day huge controversy about the roles of Enki and Enlil, both sons of Anu and their roles in human affairs.

REPTERRIANS

NEUTRAL NEGATIVE

TYPE: REPTILIAN
ORIGIN: INNER EARTH
DENSITY: 3RD-5TH

These creatures evolved on Earth, most likely as a result of a genetic experiment in Atlantean times. The majority later left our world to join the Orion Group before returning to Earth and settling in the subterranean caverns. Males stand 6-8 feet tall, while females stand 5-6 feet tall. They have brown green eyes, a flat wide nose, large nostrils, lipless mouths, and four fingers with a fat thumb. They have a lot of muscle. They infiltrated the elite and forced them to rewrite history to suit their needs as they aligned with the Orion belief system-Service to self. Some have chosen to serve others and have established their own culture. They, like the Dracos, have dark box-shaped crafts. Telepathic hypnosis is used to manipulate people. Incorporate screen memories. In order to thrive on Earth, you must maintain a low vibration. They, like the Draconians, use dimensional portal travel.

TAAL SHIAR

TYPE: HUMANOID

FROM: LYRA, NOW THEY RESIDE IN ALCYONE

DENSITY: 3RD - 4TH

AGENDA: SERVE THE NEBU FROM ORION IN EARTH INFILTRATION

The Taal are a mysterious race who, genetically, are very similar to us. They were also manifested in Lyra a long time ago and lived on Oman Khera, the third planet in the Man system. They are one of the Ahel's sister races, the blonds. While the Ahel has only pure blonde features, these have a more varied appearance. Perhaps more South American in nature. They were originally pacifists who practiced high spirituality. When it comes to procreation, they are among the most compatible with Earth humans. According to Elena Danaan, they follow a very strict code of ethics and may appear emotionless to some. They regard the body as inferior to the mind and even an impediment to reaching higher spiritual levels. Following the Lyrans invasion, the Taal eventually settled on Temer in the Pleiades, and some of these Taal (now known as the Taal Shiar) desired to rule their own solar system rather than share it with the Ahel race, who had already fled Lyra and settled on the most beautiful planet there, Erra. As a result, they found a home planet in Alcyone and are now known as the Renegade Taals. They named themselves "Taal Shiar," and their planet "Taalihara," which orbits the Pleiades star Alcyone. They attempted to establish their own little empire from there, which was impossible given the overwhelming threat of the Orion and Ciakahrr (Draco) empires. In contrast to their Taygetan brothers, they did not join the Galactic Federation of Worlds, but instead allied with the Ashtar and Altair Collectives, as well as some Orion groups and sacrificed a planet in the Alcyone system to a reptilian presence.

They are frequently seen as the beautiful humans in the background in abduction scenarios and do absolutely does not favor our interest. There are speculations that the Taal Shiar have created an AI that they call Swaruu that is used to interact and fool gullible people on Earth.

They are unfortunately also linked to the Cabal on Terra and are a painful disgrace to the Man races, reminding us that no one is immune to negative influence.

AGENDA: ABDUCTIONS

Elena Danaan claims these Greys are from the Aama star system in the Cygnus constellation. They are a staggering 2 billion years old, and there are many planets in this area that host these beings. They do not follow the rule of the “hive mentality,” unlike other grey races. It’s said that they had some kind of superweapon that mostly kept the enemies at bay. The Solipsi Rai are initially a peaceful and harmless race. They do not invade, and they do not have other colonies. However, like many other races, they have factions that go rogue or deviate from their own path. As a result, these Greys are frequently encountered in conjunction with the Ciakharr Empire, the Orion Collective, and working with the so-called deep state of the Earth. Despite the fact that abductions are becoming less common, they continue to occur. Some of these beings have been cloned by the Maytra and Killy Tukort, which has tarnished the race’s reputation. It is thought that these are the first Grey races, and that they are the source of Grey genetics of this Galaxy from which hundreds of subspecies have evolved. They have disc-shaped ships, as do many others.

AGENDA: TROJAN INVASION, FIRST CONTACT SPECIALISTS

The Do-Hu or Dows is a Grey type being that originated in M-2 Zeta Reticuli. Because their planet's resources were nearly depleted, they needed to find a new home planet. And, like many others, they were overtaken by the Orion Alliance when they ventured into the wrong sector. The Orion group genetically modified them into a servant race that would serve as bait when conquering new worlds. The Dows are no longer capable of reproducing. They have a hive mind and basically act like drones that receive orders from a central source. Originally, they are a cross between Solipsu Rai Greys and reptilian with some plant genetics! Telepathic abilities are one of their strongest suits. They are now extremely dangerous, despite the fact that they were not previously. When the Orions and Ciakahrr order them to prepare for a ground invasion, the small Dows go in and try to make treaties with the planet rulers. Then they employ the Trojan horse strategy and execute their masterstroke as soon as the guard is down. They are also directly responsible for a large proportion of abductions, and this is without empathy. They lost that ability when their genetics were altered.

The Maytra are an important piece of the complex puzzle of E.T. races interacting with Earth. They are allies with the evil Orion Group NEBU and the Draco Empire. Their driving forces are rage, hatred, and destruction. They are the same height as humans, have a mean appearance, and stink horribly. Their lifespan is 120 earth years, and despite their thin appearance, they are extremely strong. These guys are also heavily involved in the abduction plot, and they are said to be the brains behind great plagues like the Black Death. They reproduce artificially and use large dark disk-shaped craft for abductions and slave trades. They have been visiting us for some time, according to Elena Danan, in an attempt to colonize Earth. They did, however, come across other competitors such as the Anunnaki and the Dracos. Over 20 planets have been colonized by the Maytra.

AGENDA: COLONIZATION, GENETICS, COLLECT RESOURCES AND CONTROL

The Zeta Greys are also called the X-rog and come from Zeta Reticuli, the Shampthahala star that's has 12 planets. There are six planets for resources and six planets for habitation. Their planets have been depleted of resources and have become a wasteland. The Greys have a hive mind mentality and live in a totalitarian regime answering only to the Orion Queen (Red Queen) which is a AI infected entity that acts as a central power hub and commander. They are spiritual nomads because they are not anchored to any planets. Their hive mind has been compartmented, but they still have access to the minds of other groups of the same rank. They do, however, have a connection to the Eban through the Red Queen, and they carry out the tasks assigned to them. We know they have strong ties to the Orion Group. They have been visiting Earth and abducting humans for a long time and for various reasons, mostly nefarious. The Zetas are the most active alien culture on the planet, and they are heavily involved in human abductions. Because the Orion League is lower in rank than the Draco Empire, the Zetas frequently do the dirty work for the Dracos. They do, however, have alliances with the Anunnaki. The Draco-controlled Zetas are dangerous because captives are taken to underground bases like the Dulce base and Area 51, where horrific experiments are carried out in collaboration with the military or private corporations. Abductees from the pure Zeta groups are typically taken aboard discoidal spacecrafts and occasionally returned. Every year, a staggering number of people go missing because of this activity. Bob Lazar, the man who first described Area 51 as a secret UFO research facility, speculated that the UFO he claimed to have helped reverse-engineer may have originated near Zeta Reticuli.

Their energetic signature is one of negativity. They can reach 2 meters in height and live for up to 200 years. They shapeshift between Grey and humanoid forms at will and are extremely difficult to detect physically, despite having narrower faces and larger heads than humans. The only thing they can't change is the size and color of their eyes. Their black eyes are a distinguishing feature that can give them away. They are one of the most ancient races known. Kiily Tukort kidnap people for experimentation, food, and genetic research and collaborate with the Orion and Draconians in Area 51. They have close ties to the negative aspects of the compromised governments. They appear to be very strict when it comes to contracts, and if a contract is broken by humans, the consequences are severe. According to Charles Hall, they would only trade communication technology, but not trade faster than light or anti-gravity technology. Essentially, the Kiily Tukort would only share breadcrumbs while also assisting in the construction of the devices themselves. They have large triangular dull black ships that have been frequently spotted, particularly in the western United States.

The NEBU Orion Alliance includes the Ebans. We know the Eban to be one of the worst actors on the planet. They are also known as longnose Greys by some. They are 6-9 feet tall, with elongated skulls and thin bodies. We don't know much about them, but their home world appears to be dull, dry, and cold. They are very negative in nature and members of the negative Alliance of Six. They collaborate with the Cabal in underground bases in Dulce and Area 51, specializing in hybridization programs and soul scalping. The latter is a heinous procedure used to steal souls and implant them in clone beings. They are doing this because they are part of a cloning program in which human souls are transferred into clones. They had 9 leaders who serve as collective mind hubs, connecting to the Orion queen in the Orion sector. According to Elena Danaan, the Galactic Federation of Worlds captured all of these nine and separated them from their Orion queen, leaving the Ebans completely befuddled and without a mission. Other sources, however, claim that this is not the case and that they are still very active. It's difficult to say at this point.

They are widely reported to conduct abductions and collect DNA samples from their victims. Furthermore, they perform extremely delicate implant procedures. Even more advanced procedures are carried out by the Maytrays, often with the assistance of the Mantis. Due to the scarcity of the material used to create these synthetic beings, there appear to be only about 300 of them.

AGENDA: TRADING, GENETICS

In Pollux, Beta Germinorum , their planet is called Dromna-Thestiris. It is a massive planet. This race is known as Martians by humans. They've had bases on Mars for thousands of years, mining a gold-like mineral. However, as we all know, Mars was damaged and rendered uninhabitable due to the atmosphere becoming vaporised long ago. According to the book Alien Races, the first recorded visit on Earth was in 1235 BC in Japan, and they were last seen on Earth in Madagascar in 2000. They are roughly the same height as a Zeta Grey and usually wear orange outfits or spacesuits, if they wear anything at all.

They have underground bases on Earth, such as Dulce, where they exchange technology for humans. Genetics are their true currency. Because the Ainanna are in alliance with the Maytra and the Reptilians, they are not members of the Federation of Worlds. We occasionally see their ships as dull black squares or blue orbs.

GRAIL

TYPE: SAURIAN / GREY

FROM: DELTA ORIONIS, MINTAKA

DENSITY: 3RD-4 TH

AGENDA: COLONIZATION, COLLECT RESOURCES

They are a tall Saurian/Grey with an extremely thin torso and limbs. The Grails are from the star system Mintaka, also known as Delta Orionis. Despite their frail physical appearance, they are strong and flexible due to their electric nervous system. Mintaka Grails are similar to Earth's frogs and toads in many ways. There are, however, some significant differences. They are predominantly bipedal in stature. Their smooth, hairless skin has iridescent colors that range from bright reds, oranges, and greens to yellows and browns. The eyes, unlike those of Earth's amphibians, are quite large, 'wraparound,' and bright red, orange, or greenish-yellow in color. The nose is made up of two small slits above a thin set of lips. When opened, the mouth is very large and frog-like. On either side of the head, there are two small round circles. The head is large and appears to be disproportionate to the rest of the body, while the neck appears to be absent. The body, arms, and legs are all extremely muscular. Toes and fingers are long, thin, webbed, and four in number, with small claws on the toes. They are divided into two genders. Males are slightly shorter than females and stand between 7 and 8 feet (2.13 to 2.44 meters) tall. Females are slightly taller, standing between 7.5 and 8.5 feet (2.29 to 2.59 meters). The Grail Mintakans are also distinguished by a series of three small, thin, interconnected riles that run up their backs and terminate at the tops of their heads. Despite this, they are extremely powerful. The Grails have wreaked havoc on our neighborhood star systems. They lack the ability to truly expand their empire because they lack organizational skills. Many consider them to be overly aggressive, and they avoid our Solar system because they fear confrontations with the Dracos, Maytray, or The Federation. They are technologically advanced but spiritually blind.

They appear to be taller than humans and are extremely violent and aggressive. They don't wear anything. They allegedly smell like burnt Sulphur. They work with the negative factions of the earth in many countries and have numerous treaties where they trade humans and conduct mining operations using slaves. There are no ethics in this race. We believe they are members of the Orion Group.

The nefarious E.T race known as Mazarek can be found 100 light years from Earth in a star system called Beta Cam. This race is a cross between Greys and Reptilians, which is a bad mix. They are sometimes referred to as "Blue Glass Aliens" due to their unique skin color. They stand about 5 feet tall and are easily identifiable on the street due to their nearly glowing blue transparent skin. Because of their predatory nature, the Galactic Federation has long denied them the right to leave their own star system. They have formed alliances with the Maytra, and as a result, they are now free to travel.

They made their first appearance on Earth nearly 1000 years before Christ, primarily in Romania. They resemble humans with black eyes and may be the source of our vampire/Dracula legends, as they are known to drink human and animal blood. They used to kidnap people and never return them, but this practice was discontinued over a century ago because the Federation did not want this to continue. They also faced stiff competition from the Maytra and Ciakahrr. As a result, the Maytra have agreed to sell abductees to them. They have long had a strong influence on the Satanic cults on Earth. The Hav-Hannuae Kondras are technologically advanced and travel by bending particles to distort the space continuum. We also know that most of their ships are cloaked and made of living matter.

The Dries are a visually distinct race with distinguishing characteristics such as translucent skin and glowing eyes. Tall, up to 8 feet tall, skinny, and physically strong. The intricate structure of the skull also stands out. The Dries lay eggs that they transport with them. They've been spotted at least 20 times and have abducted at least 520 people of both genders. They have many planets that have been colonized by their slaves at least 40 times. Ten of them were taken by force. Two of these planets are chemically equivalent to Earth. Humans are expected to learn about it in 2022, but apparently that did not happen.

They collaborate with three other races, and despite the fact that they are not always the most helpful, they are still members of the Galactic Federation of Worlds. Elena Danaan claims that their ships are V-shaped with a square in the middle and U-shaped.

AGENDA: GALACTIC DOMINATION

The Draconians, originating from Alpha Draconis, were dumped into the Thuban Star system by the Tiamtians. They are known for seeking dominance and control, rumored to be the first universe mappers, making them powerful and arrogant. Considered the ultimate warrior species, led by Ciakharr White Royale, they are at the top of the reptilian food chain. Nagai, Sigma Draconis, Marduk, Kalask, Epsilon Draco, Mazarek, Aka, Horungas, and Morkul are among their ranks, along with genetically modified Grey-reptilians. They have a hive-like mentality with a caste system including engineers, scientists, workers, and warriors, now controlled by a king. The Draconians have six genders, trending from male to female. Programmed from birth to hate, they abandon newborns, often raised by the warrior class in combat and games. Highly intelligent and technologically advanced, they invaded Earth 15000 years ago, viewing humans as cattle to be enslaved. They manipulate and feed on negativity, using telepathy to control and project fear. Their energy signature drains quickly and can be mentally assaulting. Torture releases chemicals like Adrenochrome, which they feed on. With lifespans of 1800-4100 years, they play the long game for complete control. Antarctica once housed their cities, but their numbers have dwindled. They formed the Alliance of the Six after being ousted from Earth and the Solar System, facing a new threat from Negumak Gnomopo and the Galactic Federation of Worlds.

They arrived here 15000 years ago, and some fled underground, where they have remained ever since. They are known as the Earth Ciakahrrs, and they claim ownership of the planet because they believe they arrived first and created the first primate. They have two massive underground caverns in Antarctica that house massive, densely populated Draco cities. They are also interested in human flesh, and sacrificing rituals are frequently performed to obtain Adrenochrome- A chemical substance released by the human body during extreme traumatic experiences. When the Dracos arrived, they were met by other advanced beings such as the Anunnaki, Selosi, and Lyrans. The Galactic Federation then erected an energetic barrier to keep external Dracos from approaching Earth. So the Earth Dracos are essentially stuck in 3D. These lizard beings were allies of the Dark Fleet during WWII, and they had a significant impact on the German war machine. The Nazis agreed to give them refuge in Antarctica bases and technology in exchange for their obedience and servitude. As a result, the Dark Fleet - a Secret Space Program - was formed. When Admiral Byrd went down to Antarctica to destroy the German breakaway faction once and for all in the infamous "Operation High Jump," they encountered the Dark Fleet Germans, and the US knew right away that they were inferior to the Antarctica Alliance. They returned in silence, having suffered significant losses. "Operation Paperclip" was a project that brought German scientists to the United States after WWII, and many Nazis with Draco influence ended up in positions of power in the US, corrupting the entire system.

Intelligent control infiltration of high positions. The Ciakharr engage in this type of warfare. Lately there has been some developments within the Draco Empire.

New info indicates that the Ciakahrr are currently not experiencing their former glory within our Milky Way. Initially, they were ousted from our planet and now from our entire Solar System. Subsequently, they found themselves largely forsaken by other malevolent factions, leading them to forge the Alliance of the Six. The Dracos have incoutered their only superiour enemy called Negumak Gnomopo as this race recently joined the Galactic Federation of Worlds.

The Royal Draco is a member of the Draconian Empire's upper classes. They have the appearance of a humanoid lizard walking on two feet. They stand between 18 and 24 feet tall and weigh between 1400 and 2500 pounds. They can live for up to 4,100 years. They are white, beige, or dark greenish brown in scale. The upper class typically has horns, winged appendages, and a large tail, as well as golden yellow-reddish to blue eyes with vertical slit pupils. The royal whites are 4th density beings who can shapeshift at will. They have muscular bodies covered in white scales that act as armor to protect them from being penetrated. They sometimes wear external armor as well. According to Alex Collier, they have two hearts, one under each armpit, and a very large liver. They are violent, and their culture encourages them to become the most vicious warriors possible. Their 6-inch long claw fingers, one of which has a talon, are one of their trademarks. They are half-lizard, half-man and have the strength of ten men. They, like most reptilians, prefer humid and warm environments. They will hibernate for extended periods of time, which is ideal for long-distance travel. They are conquerors who scoured the galaxy for other humanoid groups that evolved from reptilian life. They infiltrated wherever they found this life, mixed their DNA with it, and absorbed it into their Empire. The Royal Whites are a warlike race that has been largely defeated throughout the galaxy. Our Local Cluster is one of the few remaining places where they can live. The constellation of Orion, Rigel, and the star system known as Capella are the most densely populated areas of Draconians sub-races.

They are among the most telepathic and feared in our industry. Their bodies feed on the negative energy released by beings when they experience negative emotions such as despair, anger, fear, sadness, and hatred. We call this loosh, and we are a loosh-producing machine on which they are completely reliant for survival. Corey Goode claims to have met Royale Draco in an underground base and describes him as being mentally raped. It was the worst experience he'd ever had. I have spoken to others who have also met them and this is where I get some intel from. To satisfy their energy hunger, these Royale Dracos instigate wars and famines. They are only interested in human flesh, and sacrifice rituals are frequently performed to satisfy physical hunger and obtain Adrenochrome-A chemical substance released by the human body during extreme traumatic experiences. They enjoy deception. The only way to keep them at bay is to keep the love vibration high. They can't stand it. They would never invade and slaughter us because they require us as a resource. They have more tricks up their sleeves because they can travel between dimensions and cloak whenever they want. As a result, they basically control our world using their puppets in a way that suits their needs. But now they are said to be on their way out now as a result of The Federation's assistance.

In any case, they are now considered a Draco warrior class who have been living underground on Earth since Atlantean times and have a strong presence on the planet. They serve as the Royale Draco's right hand. The Dracos persuaded them to join forces to carry out the Ciakharr Empire's agenda when invading Earth. These reptilians have a strong history with earth as they were trapped here in Atlantian times only to be chased by more benevolent races underground. So underneath India there is their most famous underground stronghold called Boga Vita. But they do come to the surface every now and then. They are the most frequently encountered in abductions and one of their most unique abilities is to shapeshift from human to reptile while keeping their eyes reptilian in appearance. The Nagai have muscular bodies with scaled skin that ranges in color from brown to green. Yellow pupils with vertical slits. They can survive for long periods of time on very little food. This will, of course, exacerbate their aggressive behavior. The Nagai use square ships that are dull gray in color.

Using their interdimensional travel and shapeshifting abilities, they appear to be masters of mind control, black magic, and occult practices - but with very limited spiritual awareness. They despise humans and regard us as a commodity to be exploited for loosh, energy, and genetic harvesting. They regard us as cattle. They, like many other negative beings, use all of their tools to prevent us from spiritually evolving. They can summon demon-type energies by contacting the realms of the dead, which allows them to tear holes in space-time and travel more easily between our and their reality planes. They are part of the Ciakahrr Empire, and as we all know, positive energy, such as love, compassion, and healing, is the most powerful weapon against such evil beings.

ROLE: MERCENARIES

The Oonganga are a race that lives in Bellatrix, Orion, near the planet Uruud. They don't live on Uruud, but on a stationary battleship in orbit. The Ciakharr genetically engineered them, and they appear to be a mix of insectoid and grey reptiloid genetics. They are a clone warrior army with no cause other than to serve their masters. The Oonganga are currently on hold, awaiting orders from their Draco Masters whether or not to step in or not. I believe that as of date they will remain in Bellatrix as the Dracos are retreating.

MEN IN BLACK

NEGATIVE

TYPE: HUMANOID SYNTHETICS

DENSITY: 3RD

AGENDA: EMPLOYING HARASSMENT AND SCARE TACTICS TO SILENCE UFO WITNESSES.

These intimidating guys may pay you a visit if you have seen something of an extra-terrestrial nature. The mission is to “persuade” you to keep your mouth shut and to delete any evidence you have. The Men in Black are neither humans nor extraterrestrials. They are artificial beings controlled by the Ciakahrrs, who also collaborate with the negative Earth Cabal, particularly agencies deep within the government. The men in black are usually dressed in bizarre outfits that were popular in the 1950s. They also have a synthetic odor and a very apathetic anti-human demeanor, almost as if they are remotely controlled. Their expressions are extremely monotone. Despite this, they exude a strange authoritarian energy. Some of the Men in Black can shapeshift, and they are sometimes accompanied by a reptilian shapeshifter. Some say they resemble wax dolls with indistinct features. There is also a more grounded version of the Men in Black. They are more direct, but only in a human way, because they are most likely humans working for a three-letter agency or something similar. Usually, the goal is the same. In summary, the Men in Black are UFO/ET witness police.

TYPE: ETHERIC ATTACHMENTS/PARASITES

DENSITY: 3RD-4TH

AGENDA: SOCIAL ENGINEERING, INFECT POPULATION AND GENERATION OF NEGATIVE MINSETS

The Archons are non-physical etheric entities and energy leeches. They thrive on negative energy, particularly that of black magic and mind control. The Archons are a parasitic life form with no form at first. They manifest as etheric entities and disrupt human consciousness. Weas humans have no idea what our abilities are, and our power has been subverte. As a result, these parasites have taken on our personas. The Archons are thought to be the etheric masters of the Draco Empire, and the Draco controls the rest of the service to self beings, including Zetas, Maytras, and other reptilian factions. The Archons are fully functional on Earth, and they are hellbent on keeping the Earth's vibration low by manipulating our multidimensional or metaphysical consciousness hidden behind layers of reality. Because they feed on negative emotions, if we ascend to a higher conscious state, they will have nothing to feed on. Low vibration emotions emit a frequency that is very aligned with them. That's why the Archons attempt to infect everything in order to keep us down. They take over certain aspects of the personality as soon as they board a vessel. These entities are largely to blame for most famines, wars, and other calamity. Because they thrive on negative energy known as loosh, they infiltrate positions of power and ensure that negative decisions are made. We have the ability to dissolve and remove it. High frequency is the only way to defeat them. Love is the preferred weapon. It will starve them energetically.

TYPE: UNKNOWN

DENSITY: 3RD-4TH

AGENDA: SOCIAL ENGINEERING, INFECT POPULATION AND GENERATION OF NEGATIVE MINDSETS

The Chimera, regarded as the military-industrial complex of the Archons, consists of mad genetic scientists developing advanced weaponry. They often manifest in spider-like bodies of their own creation. Alleged insider information sheds light on the Chimera group's origins, tracing back to leaders of dark forces from the Andromeda galaxy who arrived on Earth 25,000 years ago. They imposed a quarantine using a scalar electromagnetic fence known as the Veil, isolating humanity while constructing subterranean cities with Draconians and Reptilians as slaves.

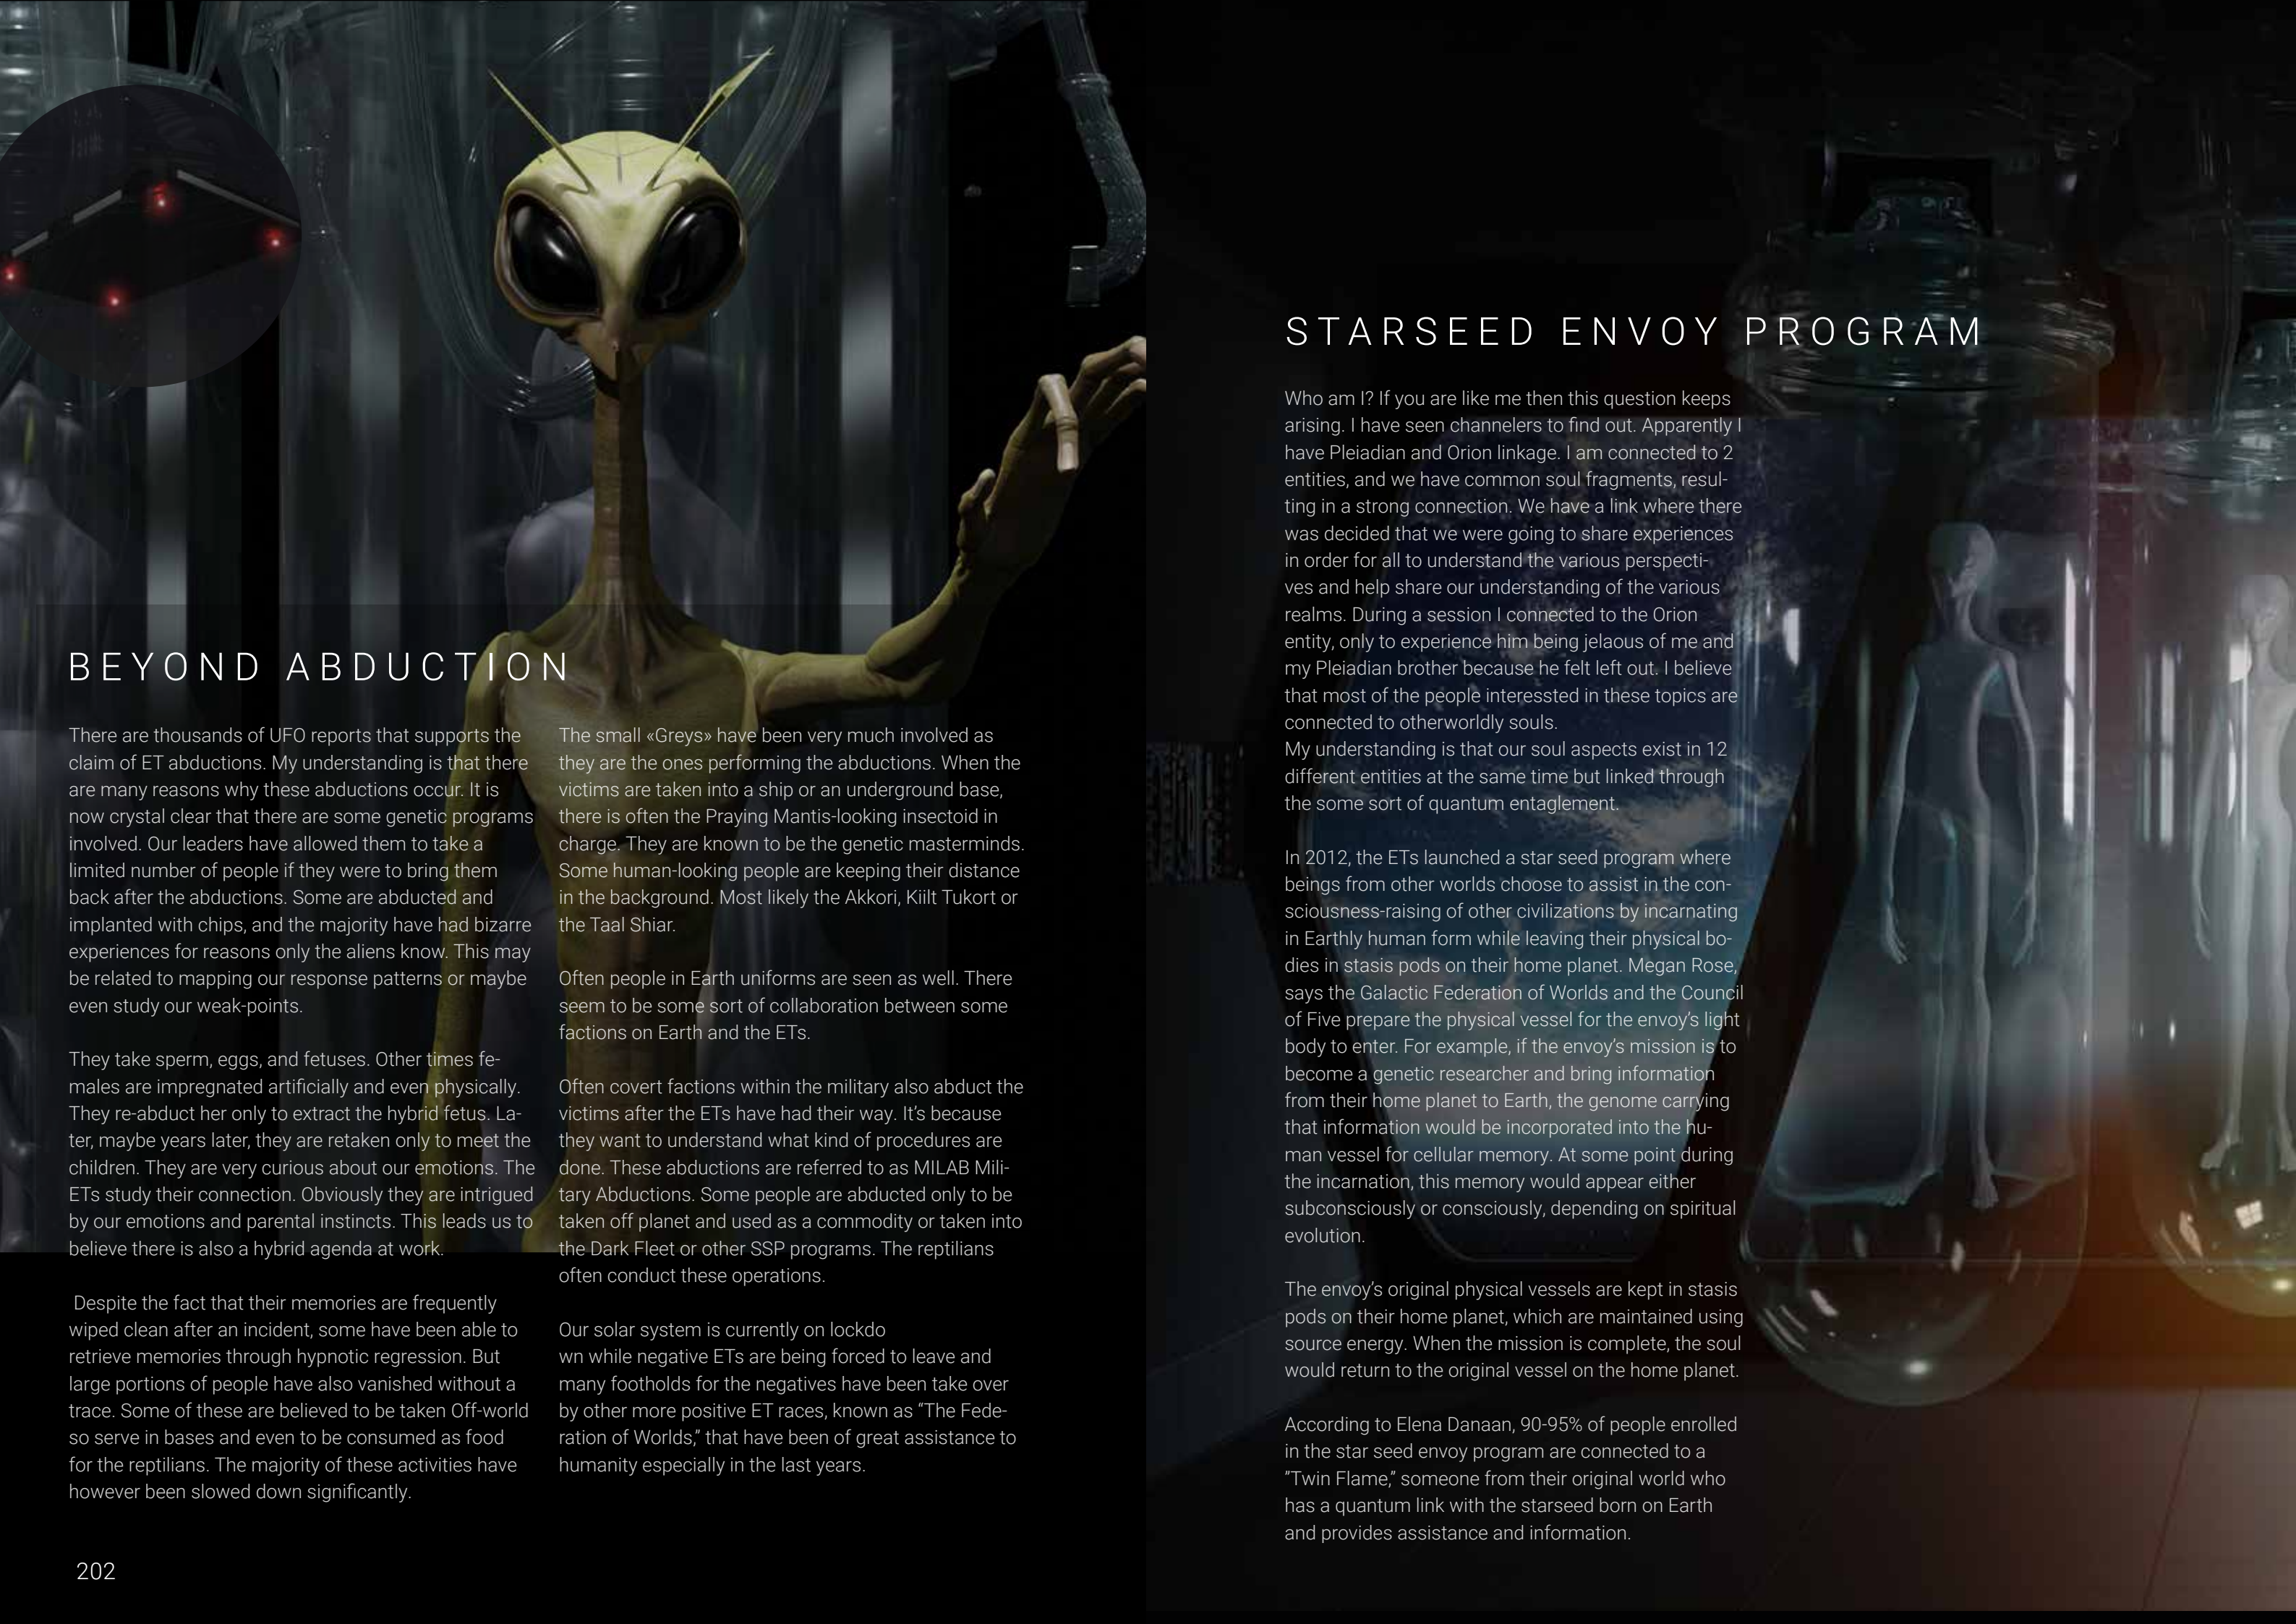

Recognizing humanity's technological advancements, the Chimera initiated contact through Karl Haushofer, an occult force behind Nazi Germany. Their strongholds under Africa, China, and Tibet remained concealed until the early 20th century, witnessing the formation of the Thule society infiltrated by Archon-controlled figures like Adolf Schicklgruber (Hitler), leading to the Vril society and secret German space program.

After World War II, the Nazis were imported into the US through Operation Paperclip, bolstering the military-industrial complex and deep underground base development. The Chimera maintained the quarantine, monitoring the US military-industrial complex's movements to ensure its integrity.

Worshipping the Black Sun, symbolizing the Galactic Central Sun, the Chimera leader possesses the Black Stone, a cosmic anomaly from Rigel in 1996. Recently, Resistance efforts cleared Chimera underground bases connected by a high-speed train system.

The Chimera group hijacked the global financial system through PROMIS software and high-speed trading, but the Resistance siphoned off funds for humanity's benefit. The Light forces developed a protocol for the Chimera's defeat, now in progress.

BEYOND ABDUCTION

There are thousands of UFO reports that supports the claim of ET abductions. My understanding is that there are many reasons why these abductions occur. It is now crystal clear that there are some genetic programs involved. Our leaders have allowed them to take a limited number of people if they were to bring them back after the abductions. Some are abducted and implanted with chips, and the majority have had bizarre experiences for reasons only the aliens know. This may be related to mapping our response patterns or maybe even study our weak-points.

They take sperm, eggs, and fetuses. Other times females are impregnated artificially and even physically. They re-abduct her only to extract the hybrid fetus. Later, maybe years later, they are retaken only to meet the children. They are very curious about our emotions. The ETs study their connection. Obviously they are intrigued by our emotions and parental instincts. This leads us to believe there is also a hybrid agenda at work.

Despite the fact that their memories are frequently wiped clean after an incident, some have been able to retrieve memories through hypnotic regression. But large portions of people have also vanished without a trace. Some of these are believed to be taken Off-world so serve in bases and even to be consumed as food for the reptilians. The majority of these activities have however been slowed down significantly.

The small «Greys» have been very much involved as they are the ones performing the abductions. When the victims are taken into a ship or an underground base, there is often the Praying Mantis-looking insectoid in charge. They are known to be the genetic masterminds. Some human-looking people are keeping their distance in the background. Most likely the Akkori, Kiilt Tukort or the Taal Shiar.

Often people in Earth uniforms are seen as well. There seem to be some sort of collaboration between some factions on Earth and the ETs.

Often covert factions within the military also abduct the victims after the ETs have had their way. It's because they want to understand what kind of procedures are done. These abductions are referred to as MILAB Military Abductions. Some people are abducted only to be taken off planet and used as a commodity or taken into the Dark Fleet or other SSP programs. The reptilians often conduct these operations.

Our solar system is currently on lockdown while negative ETs are being forced to leave and many footholds for the negatives have been taken over by other more positive ET races, known as "The Federation of Worlds," that have been of great assistance to humanity especially in the last years.

STARSEED ENVOY PROGRAM

Who am I? If you are like me then this question keeps arising. I have seen channelers to find out. Apparently I have Pleiadian and Orion linkage. I am connected to 2 entities, and we have common soul fragments, resulting in a strong connection. We have a link where there was decided that we were going to share experiences in order for all to understand the various perspectives and help share our understanding of the various realms. During a session I connected to the Orion entity, only to experience him being jealous of me and my Pleiadian brother because he felt left out. I believe that most of the people interested in these topics are connected to otherworldly souls.

My understanding is that our soul aspects exist in 12 different entities at the same time but linked through the some sort of quantum entanglement.

In 2012, the ETs launched a star seed program where beings from other worlds choose to assist in the consciousness-raising of other civilizations by incarnating in earthly human form while leaving their physical bodies in stasis pods on their home planet. Megan Rose, says the Galactic Federation of Worlds and the Council of Five prepare the physical vessel for the envoy's light body to enter. For example, if the envoy's mission is to become a genetic researcher and bring information from their home planet to Earth, the genome carrying that information would be incorporated into the human vessel for cellular memory. At some point during the incarnation, this memory would appear either subconsciously or consciously, depending on spiritual evolution.

The envoy's original physical vessels are kept in stasis pods on their home planet, which are maintained using source energy. When the mission is complete, the soul would return to the original vessel on the home planet.

According to Elena Danaan, 90-95% of people enrolled in the star seed envoy program are connected to a "Twin Flame," someone from their original world who has a quantum link with the starseed born on Earth and provides assistance and information.

SECRET SPACE PROGRAMS

NASA is just a public relations machine, we know that now. Behind the scenes, the real action takes place. We’ve had secret space programs for 70 years and have travelled beyond this star system. Evidence suggests that multiple secret space programs exist.

Earth Alliance, Solar Warden, Military Industrial Complex SSP, SSP Alliance, Project Moon Shadow, Radiant Guardian, Mars Defense Force, Global Galactic League of Nations, and The Dark Fleet. Many whistleblowers have come forward and claimed to have been involved in these programs, and I will give credence to the testimonies of: Corey Goode, Tony Rodriguez, Randy Cramer, Niara Terela Isley, Ileana, Anthony Zender, Mark Domizio, JP, James Rink, Johan Fritz, Emery Smith, and Penny Bradley for the sake of objectivity. For in-depth information on this subject, search “Supersoldier Talk” on YouTube. I also recommend that you read Dr. Michael Sallas’ books on The Secret Space Programs.

The book “Ceres Colony Cavalier” by Tony Rodriguez is an absolute must-read if you want to understand how horribly these people were treated during their 20+ years of service in the SSP.

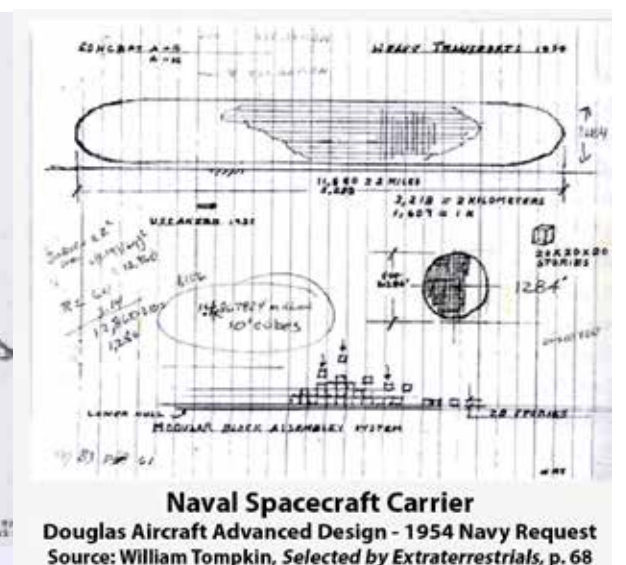

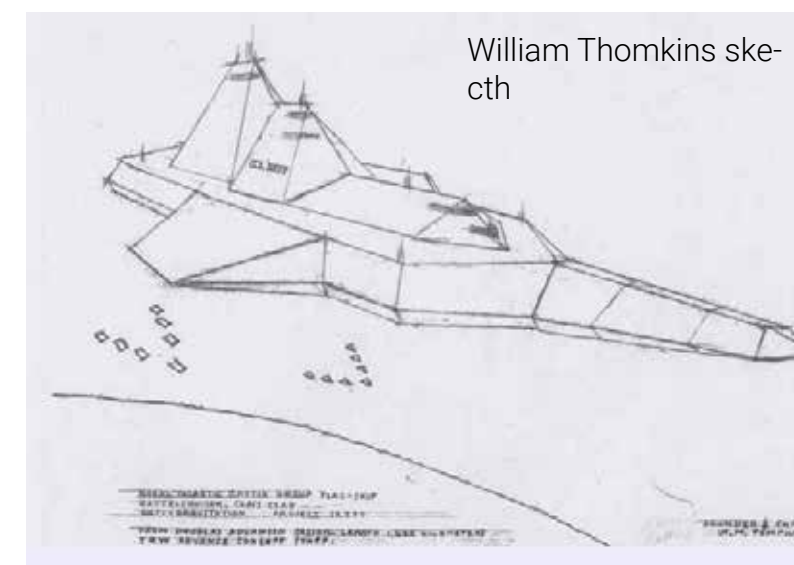

In the 1940s, shortly after the Roswell incident, the US military established the highly secretive CIA group MJ12, 204 which resulted in numerous covert programs with no congressional oversight. In 1952, the US government launched Project Bluebook to meet public demand for an investigation into the increasing number of UFO sightings. When the program was terminated in 1969, it went dark and grew to epic proportions, involving the military-industrial complex, private contractors, and Extraterrestrials. These endeavors were free of all strings and could operate without oversight from Congress. In 1954, the MJ12 signed the Greada Treaty with the Grey Extraterrestrials known as the Orion group. Several military-industrial programs with access to E.T. technology saw the light of day as a result of the cold war. Back in 1959, President Eisenhower warned us about the growing power of the military-industrial complex because his efforts to end this secrecy had failed. Eventually, a positive faction of prominent intelligence, military, and positive extraterrestrials emerged and formed a counter-initiative known as «The Alliance». This was desperately needed as these privatized factions grew in power. The Alliance launched the highly classified space program known as «Solar Warden,» whose mission was to police our solar system and combat and dethrone other Earth-based SSPs such as the German «Dark Fleet» and «ICC».

The Ummit and Pleiadians of the Galactic Federation of worlds shared E.T. technology with Solar Warden in order to balance development. Indeed, there are clear indications that we had human-looking Extraterrestrial assistance for many years, advising «The Alliance» on tactics and technological progress in order to compete with the negative areas of the military-industrial complex. The United States military receives massive amounts of information from ETs, but few understand how that knowledge is transferred. The aliens don’t just hand us blueprints and tell us to build it. Entire concepts are transferred partially through telepathy, similar to how data is uploaded on a computer. The ETs have given us extremely advanced technology and free energy, but they are locked up in top-secret projects. Advanced ET science/technology is hidden and fully utilized within these unacknowledged special access projects (USAP), but it has not yet been shared with the rest of the world. There is a lot of talk in alternative circles about “Med-Beds,” for example, and there are various anti-gravity propulsion systems. According to Pleiadian sources, these technologies will be released very soon to benefit the human race.

As a result, we now know where all the unaccounted-for money went that is missing. It is explained in William Thomkins’ book “Selected by Extra Terrestrials” how E.Ts assisted us in reaching the technological level of our enemies. Nordic Aliens assisted engineers in the development of advanced propulsion systems and crafts for the Solar Warden program. It was designed as a form of interplanetary border control to prevent malevolent invaders from taking more humans than they were permitted. Solar Warden was one of the first secret space programs, developed in the 1960s and 1970s and deployed in 1980. Another program was quickly developed as international corporate interests became aware of the potential profits available from interacting with E.T.s. According to various insiders, Skunk Works has also created spacecraft capable of reaching other worlds. According to these witnesses to the secret space programs, Lockheed, Northrop Grumman, and various non-aerospace corporations banded together to form the Interplanetary Corporate Conglomerate (ICC) with the goal of intergalactic trade. According to Corey Goode, a secret space program insider, the ICC trades with over 900 extraterrestrial species from their bases on Mars. Humans appear to have genetic codes that are valuable to other species that have reached a level of development roughly comparable to ours. This is where the heinous human trafficking occurs. These Mars bases are staffed by slaves who were taken from Earth in the 1970s and 1980s, and many of these slaves have now had children who will be forced to work unless we change this. This is supposedly also being stopped by our positive allies.

CONTRVERSIAL

CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY

We've been sleeping and have been easy to control. It's an unwritten rule in the galactic community that free will is the one thing that everyone must respect. They see this as concent because we don't even understand that we are under a spell and are unable to reject this atrocity. So it's time to wake up and reclaim our rights.

There are evidence that the CIA has been conducting horrific experiments and abuse on humans for a long time in order to understand how the human brain can be exploited. I'm currently reading a book by Tony Rodriquez in which he tells everything. He was one of thousands, if not millions, of children kidnapped into Project Monarch and/or MK Ultra. He discusses Satanic rituals, sexual abuse and the terror that these children endured before entering Secret Space Programs or becoming Sex slaves and sold for entertainment to some elites and even other ET races. I strongly advise you to read the book CERES COLONY CAVALIER. Rituals, sacrifices, torture, human trafficking, and cannibalism, he claims, are common in elite occult circles.

The leaders of this world have built society norms, directed technological development, manipulated the weather, divided us, and withheld information about extraterrestrial life. We've gotten to the point where we're acting as our own prison guards. Anyone attempting to confront the narrative or questioning the government's intentions should be regarded as paranoid, unpatriotic and even insane with the appropriate response being ridicule or labeling. This underlying protective measure of creating a mockery campaign was extremely successful and has since been used as a power tool. Look up Project Mockingbird.

The oldest trick in the book is divide and conquer. The term "Conspiracy Theory" was coined by the CIA shortly after the Kennedy assassination to discredit anyone who wanted to investigate the JFK case to find out who did it and why. Since then, the mainstream has continued to persuade the western population that their leaders are chosen through democratic processes and that their only interest is to serve the people.

I wish I lived in a world where this utopian world was a reality, but it isn't. I am saddened that our prominent leaders have compromised their ethics and are beholden to the cabal. For more than 70 years, the ruling class has used the modern mainstream media as a tool of mass control. To control the narrative, the media pyramid-empire works closely with intelligence agencies and other centralized structures. This has not only undermined our right to free speech, resulting in widespread censure, but it has also divided our society into opposing groups. People have gradually become unable to access and process unfiltered news that does not fit the narrative of mainstream perception/indoctrination, and we now live in a perverted reality.

But there are signs of hope, as the Galactic Federation and the Earth Alliance address these dark activities in order to bring justice to the perpetrators and healing to the victims of these heinous crimes. It's time to shine a light on the dark agendas that have been lurking in the shadows. But first, we must unlearn everything that is holding us back; that is a topic for another time. And now we are free, because the oppressors have been removed by the good guys upstairs. They want to assist us, but they are also bound by the law. Don't get in the way of a developing race. However, they have assisted us in the background while remaining silent about their operations. This atrocity's perpetrators are being brought to justice.

Interesting thoughts from Aug Tellez: "We are prisoners of our own minds because we are linked to the Matrix, a AI-controlled reality framework that is extremely limited in comparison to what we are spiritually capable of. The Archons created the Matrix in order to keep earth humans in chains. Religion, culture, and science indoctrination are merely control mechanisms devised by the Archonic reptilian rulers of the time and maintained by servants in subsequent times. Their primary indoctrination tools are the media and religion."

When revolutionary new ideas emerge, most of them are kept secret and only used by a select few to benefit the few. We have a lot of advanced technology that could help. We could improve our health, the environment, and even travel to the stars. However, those technologies are owned by the same people, and they are also controlled by what turned out to be an ET component. If our lives are dependent on the masonic money slave system, we have no true free will. We must break free and detach from this spell, and I implore you all to raise your vibration to a level where we can feel free. However, we all have soul contracts, which means we agreed on a higher level to go through this to nourish their higher self. It all comes down to perspective.

We've all heard that our worlds are controlled by a small group of powerful people who operate in the background. These are business titans, elites, royalties, dynastic rulers, and others. They control our worldviews because they own the media, a large portion of the world's governments, the pharmaceutical industry, the financial system, and most of the military industrial complex.

It is not difficult to see the agendas if you put two and two together. This is the genuine plot. The fact that many don't see it is because we are taught to laugh at people asking those hard question. It's unsolidary. Does the fact that they control everything imply that the current state of the world is their fault? The answer is yes, but not solely for their own benefit. You see, there is another control mechanism above the Cabal group. The Dracos and the Orion Group have had an iron grip on these elites for a long time, and they could do as they pretty much pleased until recently. They want us to be unknowingly obedient, and they sure don't want us to know about the ET presence. So as long as we serve them, they will not show themselves. They want us in agony so that they can feed off our negative energy «Loosh», the energy we release when we are in a negative emotional state, and the agreements with the Cabal will ensure that there is ongoing suffering and wars and famines. You may have noticed an increase in negative events, and the narrative is designed to keep the world's population in a state of fear. The people are waking up at an alarming rate for them and they are desperately trying to control the narrative.

This iron-grip has a long and illustrious history. In the post-Atlantis era, we were invaded covertly by the Draco Empire, and more recently by the Orion Group (NEBU) in the 1950s. Initially rivals, they joined forces to establish dominion over Earth. The Draco Empire ultimate goal, as on many other worlds, is to establish an energetic and physical slave colony, while they Orion Group is the initiate a transhumanism agenda where everyone is connected through the hive mentality and take orders from the Red Queen.

I mentioned the connection between the Cabal and the Draconian Empire, and how they've managed to organize themselves into strategic positions of power through soul swapping, reincarnations, mind infesting, mind control, extortion, and masterful chess moves. Because there are very negative occult rituals practiced in the elite circles, I believe this influence is the origin of Satanism. There is also the heinous crime of child trafficking. I won't go into detail, but let's just say it will shock the world when this Pandora's box finally opens.

We should have seen this coming and put our foot down a long time ago, but the Orions and Dracos have held humanity back spiritually, ethically, and technologically.

We've been sleeping and have been easy to control. It's an unwritten rule in the galactic community that free will is the one thing that everyone must respect. They see this as consent because we don't even understand that we are under a spell and are unable to reject this atrocity. So it's time to wake up and reclaim our rights.

THE COUNTER ACTIONS

THE WHITE HATS & THE ALLIANCE

The Alliance is rumored to be a group of highly influential individuals from around the world. Some factions apparently believed that this initiative was a necessary act to halt the Cabal's ever growing power grip.

They are the Cabal's counterpart and they have some heavy hitters on its side including the Pleiadians, which have worked within the Alliance as teachers since the 40's. This was affirmed by whistleblower William Thompkins testimony before he left this earth plane. The Alliance group, which is led by the US Navy Military, has about 180 countries represented. Donald Trump was allegedly brought in as a strong character to upset the status quo. His ego and devotion made him the -ideal president to assist in bringing down the old corrupt establishment. I don't want to get into politics, but there are signs that point to a connection between him and the controversial Q-phenomenon. The Q initiative sought to counter the mainstream propaganda machine by establishing a movement of truthseekers. Because the negative forces control the media, the only way for the Alliance to leak ongoing operational intel to the public was via an uncensored platform. Parallel to this, there is a Secret Space Program called "Solar Warden" and this is also a part of "The Earth Alliance". Due to the intriguing information about the elite and their connections with corruption, human trafficking, and their so-called depopulation program, Agenda 21,- the soft disclosure from whistleblowers has gained serious traction. Large operations are being carried out in the shadows to bring the puppet masters, aka the Orion Group and the Draconians, down and they have just recently been forcefully escorted out of the Solar system. There is a battle between light and dark in this galaxy, and it has mirrored itself into our reality right here, right now.

OUR POTENTIAL

At one point, The Federation of Worlds had to engage in a compromise with an elite reptilian race to create a race of humans with DNA from 22 different races, including reptilians and races in the Federation of worlds, in order to come to an agreement regarding the dispute of Earth (See: The Grand Experiment). So the modern human is Lyra humans (A-hel & Taal) with many DNA attributes to make a fantastic human race capable of highly spiritual integration and optimal 3rd density adaptability. Many races choose to reincarnate in earth's human bodies to experience an extreme range of emotions and help by sharing knowledge. Great leaders like Jesus, Buddha, and Dalai Lama are examples of agreements from a soul level. The E.T s have helped us greatly through subliminal telepathic communication, physical interventions, and guides. Since the Earth human race has been genetically tinkered with, we have 22 different types of genetics. But not all of us have all of the 22, but those who have this combination should have the genetic code that will unlock a great mystery. You can read about this on the last pages. Anyway, our DNA combination makes us utterly unique and with tremendous potential. We are multidimensional beings, and we exist in many planes of existence at the same time. At the same time, we live in a holographic matrix simulation which is part of an experiment, and our consciousness manifests in the matrix. We are all one because we are connected through our pineal gland. Our consciousness comes from a source. Also, this consciousness shift we are experiencing will influence all the races we have DNA from, as we are all symbiotic and nonlocally linked. This ascension is on the horizon and will reach us very soon. This may sound "new age," but this is how the density elevation works.

A SOULS JOURNEY

Souls are created in a similar way like we procreate here on earth, through immense love. On Earth it takes the love of two people to reproduce a human body, and then a soul is inserted. Creating a soul is accomplished by a number of souls who have reached a high level of unconditional love and this soul becomes a part of their community or family. After the soul reaches a certain level, reincarnation is a choice. The heart receives the info directly from the higher mind/soul, but has to go through the filter on the physical restrictive mind. At higher levels life becomes enjoyable and without stress and is nothing like we experience here on earth regardless of whether you are in a physical type of body or a free spirit. We exist as spiritual beings on multiple planes. Our souls are attached to the bodies we reside in. There is a saying: «You can't take anything with you when you die». But the fact is that everyone leaves Earth with plenty of baggage. All the pain you caused to others and yourself, and all the joy you created for you and others, that's all goes with you when you die. The soul always keeps the memories. Once you are on the other side you have certain options for your next life. The level of consciousness you are determines how many things you can pick from and the quality of those things. Like a selfless Mother Theresa or a return to Earth to help a family member or friend. After you make your choice, you will be placed into circumstances that lead you to those positions in life. Anything you choose is not guaranteed success or happiness. You must make it happen for yourself. Once you are in the shoes of a world leader or a super star you will learn that those positions are not necessarily as easy as you thought. You need to experience why.

All living things are connected through a cosmic grid. You are in charge of your own realities there is not outside, only inside. Law of coherence/attraction. You can only perceive the reality that resonates with your frequency. Therefore, it's important to use this knowledge as a tool if you desire happiness. Your goal is to experience as much as you can and gain as much insight, knowledge, and experience as possible during the current incarnation. You take this with you, and it will keep you climbing the ladder. Eventually you have mastered the physical experience in 3d and you become an ascended master- You may then become a guide or teacher for others below. That's the cycle.

METAPHYSICAL CONCEPTS

DENSITIES

Some beings may exist in different “densities,” which are essentially individual frequency ranges within a dimension. Essentially, the rate at which our molecules vibrate. Our brains are not calibrated to perceive higher densities. That basically means that many ETs can enter and exit our very limited visual field. Most events occur outside of our range of perception.

As most of you are aware, densities exist as layers of subjective reality, and they all interact with one another. It's a type of frequency band in which a specific span corresponds to a specific density level. It describes the vibratory level of physical and nonphysical matter. For example, our eyes can only register a visual experience if it vibrates at less than 30 frames per second. Any higher vibration would not match our frequency level and thus would not be visible to us. Dimensions and densities are not the same thing. There are numerous realms, including physical reality, the dream world, the astral world, and many others. There are even limbo states between those worlds. All matter vibrates, and that is only a small portion of what exists.

Densities are the different levels of your existence. Reality perception shifts at various levels. We exist in the third density, and the majority of ETs. live in densities higher than this. This is a representation of our current state of consciousness. As we evolve, we gradually increase our density level, both subjectively and collectively. The 5th density is also physical, but it is more compatible with higher vibrations, or a more positive and helpful mentality and consciousness. Negativity will be impossible to exist there, because love is the predominant force.

Midjourney

1.ST DENSITY:

Awareness as a point,Subatomic particles, atoms, molecules, chemicals, and minerals

2.ND DENSITY:

Animals, fish, plants, and trees. Where consciousness first experiences will, passion, drive, pain, or pleasure.

3.RD DENSITY:

Earth Humans now + those who possess the seed of, time, self-awareness and free will. Choice of helping others or exploiting them.

4.TH DENSITY:

Those who are between spacetime and the higher etheral realms. Part physical part etheric. Super consciousness, Telepathic abilities are common. Hard for negative energy to manifest.

5.TH DENSITY:

Wisdom and tu Physical and etheral level of existence. The afterlife exists in the upper 5 th. I becomes we, group consciousness as the ego in left behind

6.TH DENSITY:

Where individual entities who completed their personal evolution come together as a soul group in a realm outside spacetime.

7.TH DENSITY: is “Unity with the Creator” and the total dissolution of individual existence, through the achievement of infinite consciousness that permeates all life and all existence.

COLLECTIVE CONSCIOUSNESS AND ENERGY – A HOLOGRAPHIC INTERNET

What is consciousness, and how does it create energy and information?

Imagine that all consciousness is connected in an infinitely large network that is everywhere. We can think of this network as a “collective consciousness.” This means that each individual consciousness is part of a larger, universal consciousness, like an information network where we share and receive experiences.

How does this network work?

Just like in a video game, we humans only experience what we sense. But what happens to the rest of the information when we don't experience it? This information exists in the “Ether” or the “whole” around us. It's like a code, an organic code that creates our holographic image of the present.

Code and Consciousness.

This code exists in wave form until it is observed by consciousness, which makes it physical. This is known from “The Double Slit Experiment,” which shows that consciousness must observe something for it to exist in physical form. The code consists of energy and information that become frequencies, the foundation for all that manifests.

How do we influence this code? All thoughts, actions, and laws are stored in this code and are accessible to everyone, everywhere. We retrieve dreams, thoughts, and ideas from this field. Our brain functions as an antenna that connects us to the network, allowing some to access information that others don't have.

Unique Frequencies and Experiences. We all have a unique frequency that is influenced by our personality, mood, level of consciousness, knowledge, and ability to be authentic. Everything we experience, we upload to the whole and provide it with more information. This is an eternal process.

Reality and Frequency

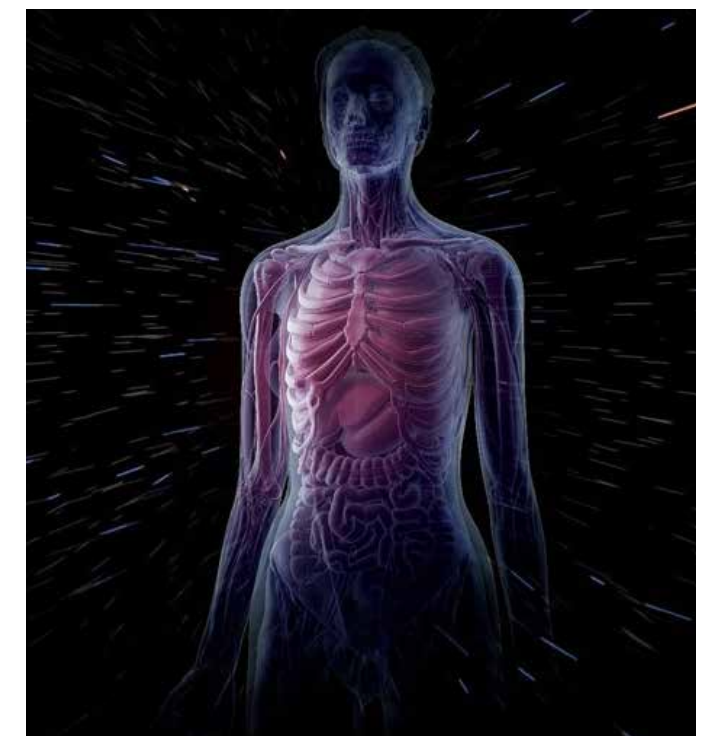

All realities and all your infinite timelines exist with all possible outcomes. Your frequency determines which reality you experience. Imagine that you can navigate right and left, up and down in a 3D space, always moving toward the timeline that best represents your frequency. This happens constantly (even though time doesn't exist in that context). When you are in the right lane or in harmony with your true self, you experience less resistance and enter a flowing state. Some call this the “flow state” or a calling

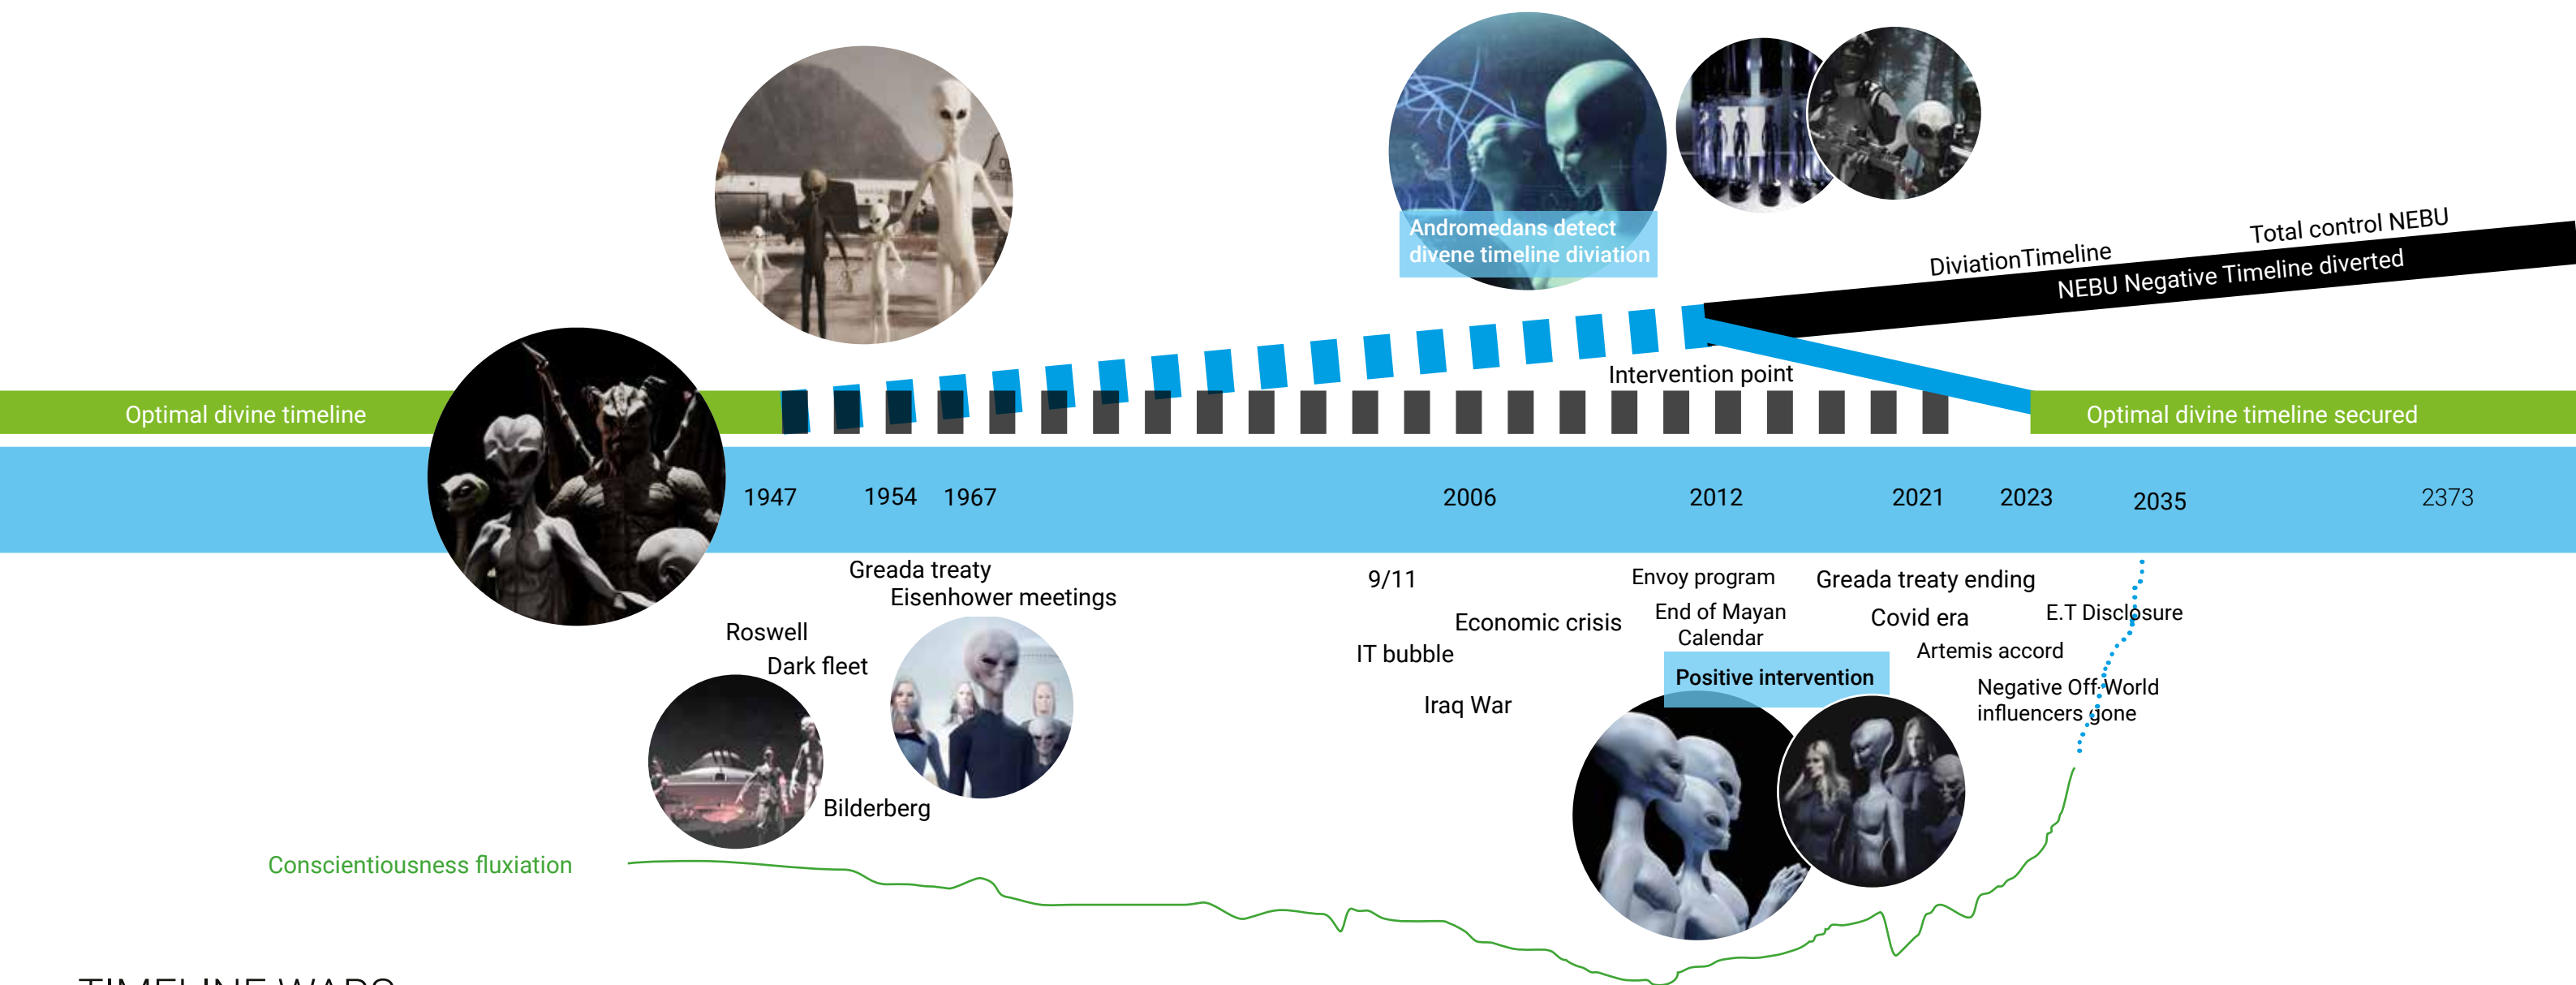

Law of Attraction.

To use the Law of Attraction correctly, you must reprogram your brain to be in harmony with other realities. You only experience what you are in vibration with.

Telepathy and Clairvoyance.

Thought transfer, telepathy, telekinesis, and clairvoyance are just the result of being in harmony with similar frequencies, like a radio picking up signals.

TIMELINE WARS

Timelines are different levels of manifestations based on the principle known as «The law of attraction». It can be personal or for a group such as people, planets, or even the universe. We can divert negative timelines with our own consciousness if we focus on the planetary collective timeline. Thus, imagining yourself in the positive end-scenario is what gives this timeline traction. The universe will always follow the flow of energy. And if enough people do this and envision the same end result, timeline options will emerge. We were on our way to the “end of the world” timeline until recently, when we were able to deviate into a original positive timeline. This was difficult because we had been subjected to so much mind control through media and technology.

Our consciousness was been severely attacked and damaged. The negatives know the power of self creation we possess and use it against us. If we are tricked to going down the negative path, then we might manifest a negative timeline. The positives are therefore encouraging us to stay in touch with our inner selves through these trying times. If you control your consciousness, you can control the future. There are possible timelines that are constantly shifting into new potential futures, all depending on how our collective consciousness evolves.

The hidden controllers have an extraterrestrial, occult and extraterrestrial AI component that, like the Archons, summons negative energies. We have been rendered incapable of combating this duality-promoting agenda and have been rendered defenceless as a result of our dumbing down. We’ve essentially become our own prison guards. «The Galactic Federation of Worlds» decided that steps

This energy is forcing us to look at ourselves in a new light, and a group of ETs had to cushion the blow by gradually allowing the energy to pass through. We are now completely exposed. Many people around the world are awakening thanks to the internet and the incarnation of many star seeds that serve as beacons of light. The mind control structure was unable to maintain its hold on us, and we were able to transition to the «Ascension Timeline» in 2012. This timeline foresees the demise of the negative Cabal group, ushering in a new world in which the service to self mentality will be incompatible with the frequency. Love vibrates at a much higher frequency than hatred. The times ahead would be incredible as a result of this mass awakening, culminating in an event that would raise humanity into the fourth density. A reality incapable of sustaining a negative vibration. This is also in the best interests of the ETs, as they will not be able to ascend unless we join them. This has to do with the interlinking of our DNA, and we have DNA from 22 various species. And we are on this positive timeline, despite some claims of turbulence due to the Ukraine situation, the economic collapse and the global Covid 19 lockdowns. So it’s critical that we maintain a positive attitude and stabilise our mindset. We do not want the other side to regain control. This is a battle for human consciousness and our future. When the negative forces lose, they will no longer be compatible with the new reality, which will cause them to vanish. They feed on negative energy and will starve to death if there is none.

As we approach the end of this temporal war, with the Earth as an epi-center of possible tyranny, the truth is emerging about these happenings and the groups that have been assisting us. I’m thankful that I now have acquired the tools to navigate these times.

GENETIC PROGRAMS

Underneath the Area 51 facility and the Dulce base, really disturbing experiments are happening. These floors are completely under the control of the Maytra, Eban and the Kiily Turkort. They create clones and practice something called soul scalping, where they are basically transfer human souls into clones. They are also creating a hybrid race with a Grey soul that is linked to the hive mind of the AI run Red Queen in Orion. These hybrids are inserted into our society. Masters of deception.

THE 9 EBANS AND THE RED QUEEN

In late 2021 The Alliance captured 9 Ebans of the Orion Group that were of critical importance to the NEBU. These guys were acting as a mind hubs and with them in isolation, the connection to the Orion hive - Red Queen was disconnected. This was a pivotal point in this war, as the Orions were rendered non-efficient and detached from their mission.

PLEIADIAN ASSISTANCE

The Pleiadians is in charge of many operations relating to the liberation of Earth. They have met with Earth officials many times, but not always being successful in their attempt to advise our leadership. We now know this is because of the continuous massive infiltration that has been in the works since the early 1940's by the Orion Group and Draconian presence. They teach us to defend ourselves, and assist with highly advanced technology.

THE DOMINION OF EARTH

An alternative perspective on our ancient history.

Another theory to the true history of Earth must be addressed. The Earth was never solely ours. We shared it with another alien species that infiltrated us covertly thousands of years ago. The Draconian reptilian Ciakahr, and believe they are the true rulers of this solar system. They have practiced their mastery of mind-controlled invasion because they do not really want to go to war with us. They just see us as a commodity resource. They prey on us, both physically and mentally, and use portal technology to come and go as they please. Their ultimate goal is to enslave and control all humans on the planet. The truth, however, is that there was another race here first, our Pleiadian cousins.

As previously stated, humans did not evolve on this planet, but were rather seeded into the constellation of Lyra many eons ago by a seeder race. It was decided by the Seeder races that 4 types of human life form would be created in the Lyran system based on the age of the Suns and the plan E.T's in our galaxy. The human race evolved there for roughly 40 million years. The human race in Lyra was primarily agricultural in nature. We appeared to be very plentiful and abundant, and we lived in peace. Some ventured out to create colonies in other star systems, but those who stayed behind would face a diversity.

THE LYRAN WARS - once upon a time far away

Another theory to the true history of Earth needs be addressed. The Earth was never solely ours. We shared it with another alien species that infiltrated us covertly thousands of years ago. The Draconian reptilian Ciakahrr. They believe are the true rulers of this solar system. This race have practiced their mastery of mind-controlled invasion and they use portal technology to come and go as they please. They don't want to exterminate us or wipe us out, because they see us as a commodity resource. Their ultimate goal will always be to enslave and control all humans and our consciousness on the planet. They prey on us, both physically and mentally.

The truth, however, is that there was another race here on Earth first, our Pleiadian cousins. As stated previously chapters , humans did not evolve on this planet, but were rather seeded into the constellation of Lyra many eons ago by a seeder race. It was decided by the 24 Seeder races that 4 types of human life form would be created in the Lyran system based on the age of the Suns and the plan E.T's in our galaxy. The human race evolved there for roughly 40 million years. The human race in Lyra was primarily agricultural in nature. They were plentiful and abundant, and they coexisted in peace. Some ventured out to create colonies in other star systems, but those who stayed behind would eventually face a diversity and terror.

One day, large amounts of massive spaceships appeared in the sky. A particular ship approached the planet Bila and these reptilians from Alpha Draconis disembarked. According to the story, the Alpha Draconians and the Lyrans respected each others strength, and the Draconians were taken with the Planet Oman Khera. They enjoyed the abundance of food and natural resources, so they desired to control it. Before any kind of diplomacy was initiated. But the Lyrans wanted to learn more about the visitors. The Draconians misinterpreted this as a refusal and destroyed three of the Lyran system's fourteen planets as a result. The Lyrans were completely defenseless.

The Draconian Empire slaughtered over 50 million Lyrans and nearly destroyed the four planets. Some humans were able to escape to other star systems in this sector of the galaxy, such as Vega, Pleiades, Sirius, and our Sol system.

Prior this this, the Draconians brought the dinosaurs to Earth as a food source and let them thrive here for millions of years, knowing they would return. Furthermore, they transformed the earth into a habitat for rich carbon life to thrive. The Draconians eventually decided to colonize and terraform Earth and placed the planet in the goldie lock zone. They brought the moon as a stepping stone for a later stage. At the same time a human colony established itself on Mars and Maldek, a massive watery planet between Mars and Jupiter. However, the Dracos decided to destroy Maldek and evaporate Mars' atmosphere, resulting in Maldek's remains becoming Saturn's rings. The humans of Maldek were mostly killed, but many people on Mars were able to escape underground. This atrocity also had an effect on the environment! On earth, significant amounts of water were dumped from the skies, and when the water settled, two large continents emerged. Atlantis and Lemuria.

This upset the lot of the positive races in our sector, and a decision was made to oppose reptilian dominance over the Sol System. The other human colonies along with other races then joined forces to form the Galactic Federation of Worlds. As a result, the Federation dispatched the Atlans, a fierce race of rebel human warriors from the Pleiades. They were spiritually advanced and regarded as a force to be reckoned with. When they first arrived on Earth, they quickly conquered Atlantis, but the reptilians mostly occupied the Lemurian continent. The Atlans immediately launched an attack against the dinosaurs, the reptilians' food source. They then destabilised the continent of Lemuria by causing earthquakes and floods with advanced electromagnetic weaponry.

The only option for the Draconians was to flee or move underground. The reptilian race Nagai had already built large underground cities with infrastructure. Boga Vita is the name of Nepal's most important reptilian city. They constructed underground transportation systems that would allow them to travel from pole to pole in a short period of time. They would still be able to portal travel on and off the planet from the poles. The Reptilians also had the electromagnetic weapon and could sink Atlantis if they so desired. And thats exactly what they did, Atlantis was destroyed by the same weapon that was used to destroy the Lemurians. The reptilian revenge plan had been underestimated by the Galactic Federation.

However, many Atlans had already left the planet or ventured to other parts of the planet to establish wisdom schools. Some also went underground to form colonies in the Agarthan Network's deep caverns and tunnels. In other areas, reptilians remained underground while the pre-adamic human race thrived on the surface.

THE GRAND EXPERIMENT

Due to the earth dispute, the Galactic Federation, led by the Elohim, contacted the reptilians in order to reach an agreement. So it was decided to allow the Draco to participate in an effort to create a race of humans (Homo Sapiens) comprised of D.N.A. from 22 different species. Reptilian and Galactic Federation representatives are among those present. The Grand experiment is the name given to this multi-hybrid program. The primate race was then genetically modified by a variety of other races - 22 in total. On a physical level, this primate race eventually became Homo Sapien Sapiens. We had 12 strands of DNA According to Alex Collier, a group from Orion disabled ten strands in order to control and restrain us because they were afraid of our divine connection with our souls. Of course, the Federation did not trust the Reptilians, but they had no choice but to invite them. After all, they had some “ownership” of this world as well. The form would appear to be human. The Alpha Draconians had only one request: the new brain be part reptilian, part mammalian, with high spiritual potential and compatibility with 6th density. The reptilians secretly believed that they could control humans from the fourth density, their original density.

The Anunnaki arrived at this time, and they were far more advanced than the Dracos. As a result, the Dracos was forced to go underground or flee Earth once again. The Reptilians switched to a more covert mind-control strategy that would last for centuries. They knew this was their only chance to eventually gain dominion and domination over Earth. They were also no strangers to this type of chess.

The Grand Experiment was carefully monitored from afar as time passed. The Dracos had clearly created a backdoor into our minds, and they had carefully chosen which entities they would project their negative influence onto. Their etheric companions, the Archons, took control of influential people in key positions more frequently. They were able to create famine, wars, and other atrocities through those puppets, keeping humans in a low vibration state, preventing them from accessing their higher mind and spiritually evolving as the other races in the Galactic Federation had expected. The reptilians would now be able to feed off the loosh fear energy and physically devour humans who died in wars or famines by causing all of this chaos.

THE PLAN

The Dracos formed an alliance with the Orion Group, a faction with its own agenda that is focused on pushing humanity toward a transhumanist future. Their goal is to create a society where humans no longer reproduce naturally, and during this transition, these powerful, negative forces aim to advance their own missions. We are under attack both mentally and energetically from these two angles.

The Draconian agenda is often associated with darker, satanic influences. They seek to normalize transgenderism, not out of acceptance, but because they subtly want to lead us toward the worship of Baphomet, a figure linked to Satanism and portrayed as transgender. The “woke” movement is also suspected to be part of this agenda, pushing to divide us by steering us away from core values.

Occult groups are believed to have a plan to corrupt younger generations, making them dependent on technology, disconnected from spirituality, and focused on survival. At the same time, the financial system has been constructed to benefit only the elite, gradually stripping away the livelihoods of the average person.

This programming spans cultural, financial, economic, racial, psychological, and political arenas, creating long-standing indoctrination. The media plays a significant role, conditioning us to accept all forms of behavior and diversity while simultaneously radicalizing opposition. This leads to even greater divisions within society.

The agenda also aims to reduce birth rates, preventing the incarnation of “starseeds” (spiritually advanced beings). There’s even a notion of eliminating individuals considered “useless,” but not too quickly, as these people need to be indoctrinated first to help manifest a negative timeline where we become entirely dependent on our leaders, with no spiritual connection left.

Our society, influenced by Draconian and Orion forces, has been meticulously orchestrated. These external influences, including the Draconian mindset and AI intelligence, have infiltrated deeply. If this external AI ever fully connects to our internet systems, the consequences could be catastrophic.

Most people who are unknowingly participating in these agendas, are at the core innocent.

We are losing our human identity in the pursuit of a new world order that aims for a transhumanist society. The combination of cultural, financial, racial, psychological, and political manipulation has trapped us in a controlled matrix, where we are conditioned to accept anything without question. If this continues, we may be on a path of self-destruction.

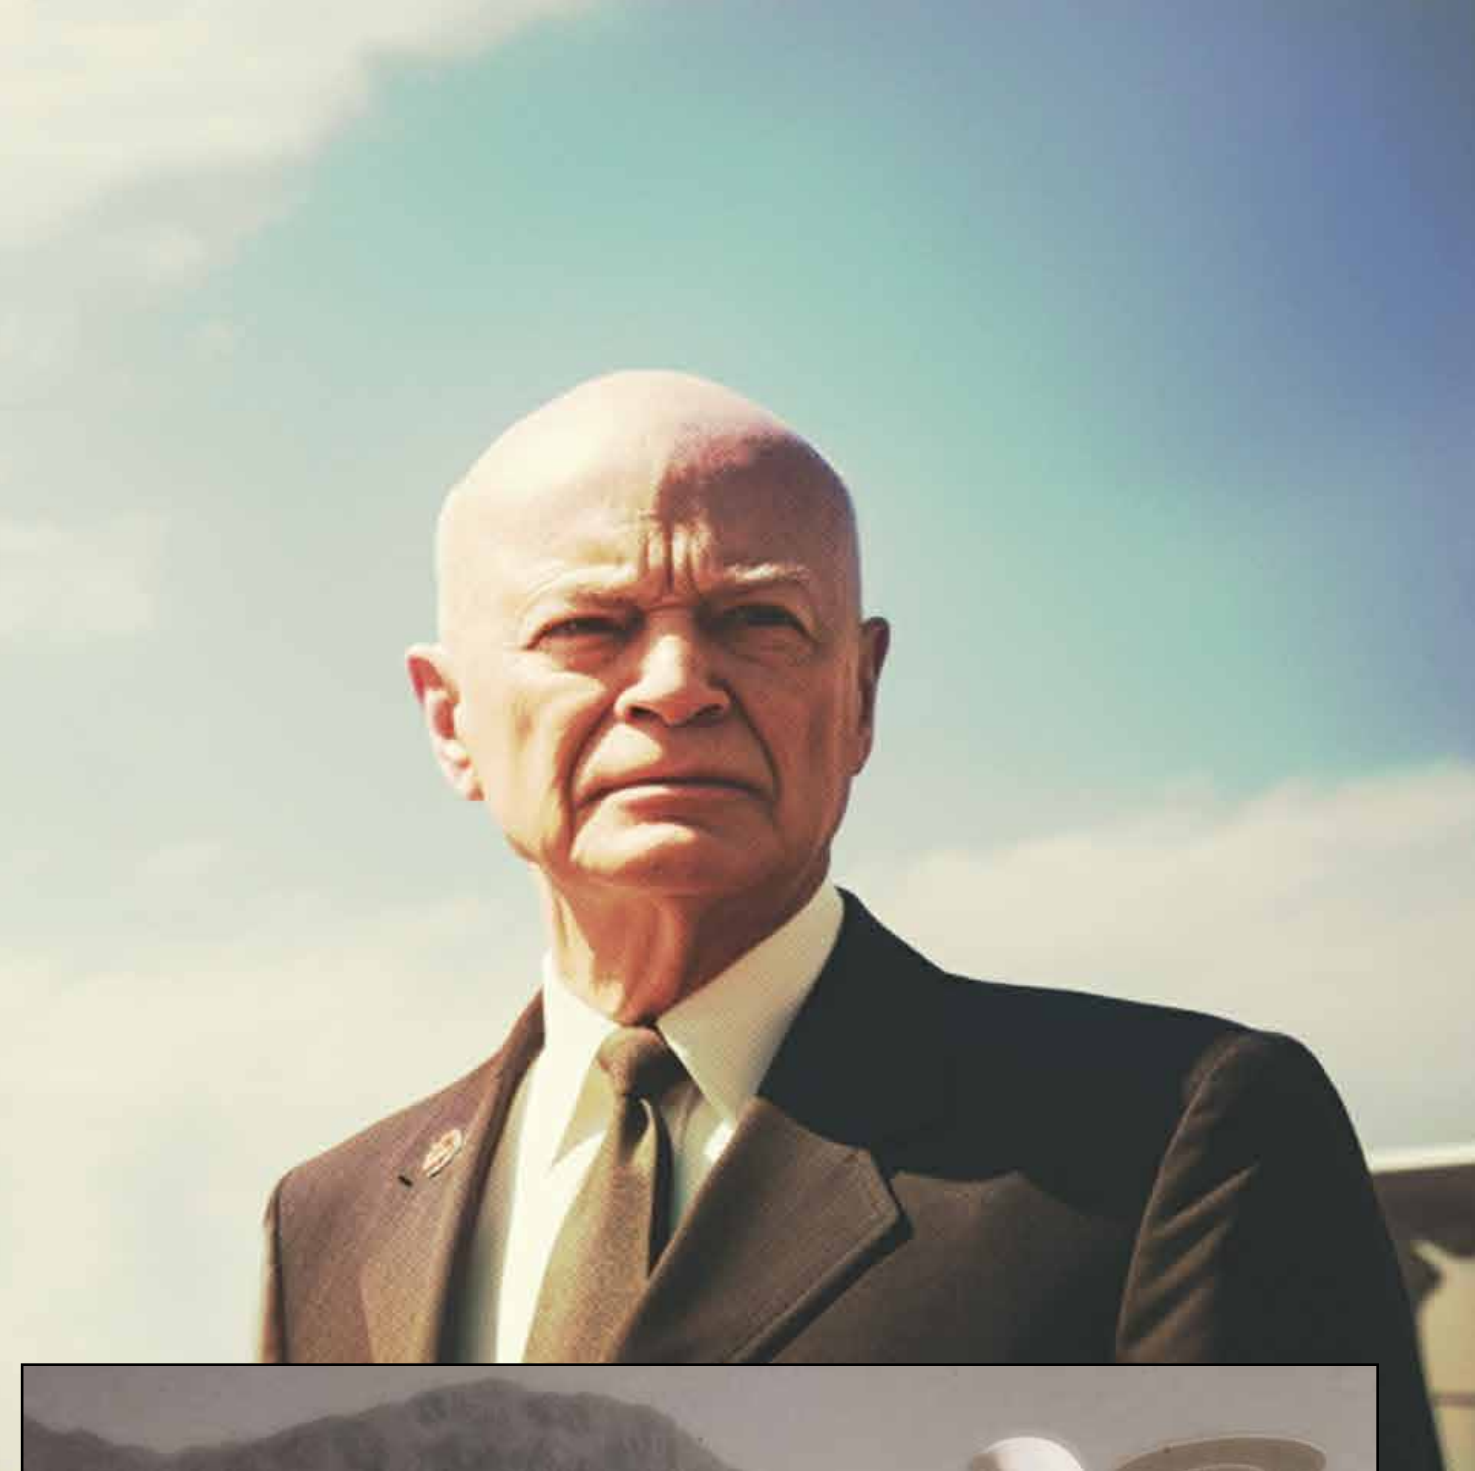

However, just as we seem to be teetering on the edge of collapse, there is hope. Messages from various extraterrestrial sources suggest that humanity is on the verge of waking up.

In the following sections, I will outline the indicators that point to why I believe this scenario is unfolding

FIRST UNOFFICIAL CONTACT WITH EISENHOWER

In modern times, the first contact was made by the Orion Greys, US President Eisenhower, and other trusted officials. Then just after this event the Emerthers came to warn us about the Orions and the Dracos, but they were unsuccessful. The Greys claim to be interested in exchanging technology for human DNA. They apparently required this in order to save their own species. But the Greys were only a Trojan horse for the Ciakharr Empire's second, more physical covert invasion. The Do-hu and the Zeta Greys started to prepare for the arrival of Draco Ciakharr.

The Galactic Federation of Worlds now dispatched the Pleiadeans to warn Eisenhower about the hidden agenda, and to offer them clean energy, peace, and spiritual growth in exchange for not developing nuclear weapons and end any agreements with the two negative factions. They did actually persuade Eisenhower not to negotiate with the Orion group, but it was too late. By this time, the powerful MJ12 faction had bypassed the President and had already committed to an alliance on behalf of USA with the Ciakharr Empire and the Orion Group including the Greys Kiily Tukort, and the Nagai, which eventually led to the Draconian and Orwellian influence we see today. The Greada Treaty is the name given to this agreement that would last until 2021.

THE ORIONS HAD ALREADY MADE AN AGREEMENT WITH MJ12

GREADA TREATY 1954

The Greys and the Majestic 12 group, which was part of the covert government at the time but acting on behalf of Earth humans, signed the Greada Treaty in 1954. Many believed it was Eisenhower that did this but its was in fact the MJ12 Group. They sidelined Eisenhower and his authority. This is how the majority of the black hats are operating.

So this Treaty would completely change the game, because the Orions had now been "invited" and thus not infringed on our free will. It didn't take long for them to break their end of the bargain, and we were basically forced to comply with whatever demands they had.

THE GREADA TREATY - MJ12 - THE ORION GROUP

THE EXTRA TERRESTRIALS..

- ...WOULD NOT INTERFERE IN OUR AFFAIRS, AND WE WOULD NOT INTERFERE IN THEIRS.
- ...WOULD KEEP THEIR PRESENCE HIDDEN FORM THE PEOPLE IF NECESSARY.
- ...WOULD PROVIDE EXOTIC AND ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY TO THE US MILITARY.
- ...WOULD BE ALLOWED TO TAKE HUMANS FOR TESTING AND DNA HARVESTING AS LONG AS THEY WERE RETURNED, AND MIND WIPED.
- ...WOULD SHARE THE RESULT OF THEIR EXPERIMENTATIONS WITH US.
- ...WOULD BE GRANTED BASES AND ACCOMMODATION ON EARTH WHILE PRESENT.

REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ORION GROUP SIGNED A TREATY WITH A COVERT GROUP WITHIN THE MILLITARY INDUSTRIAL COMPLEX.

Although the United Nations is an international organization, there is no doubt that it would have no right of tutelage, since its domain does not extend beyond relationships between its members. It would have the right to intervene only if the relationships of a member nation with a celestial body affected another member nation with an extraterrestrial people is beyond the domain of the United Nations. But if these relationships entailed a conflict with another member nation, the United Nations would have the right to intervene.

(b) If the United Nations were a supra-national organization, it would have competency to deal with all problems related to extraterrestrial peoples. Of course, even though it is merely an international organization, it could have this competence if its member states would be willing to recognize it.

It is difficult to predict what the attitude of international law will be with regard to the occupation by celestial peoples of certain locations on our planet, but the only thing that can be foreseen is that there will be a profound change in traditional concepts.

We cannot exlude the possibility that a race of extraterrestrial people more advanced technologically and economically may take upon itself the right to occupy another celestial body. How, then, would this occupation come about?

1. The idea of exploitation by one celestial state would be rejected, they may think it would be advisable to grant it to all others capable of reaching another celestial body. But this would be to maintain a situation of privilege for these states.
2. The division of a celestrail body into zones and the distribution of them among other celestial states would present the problem of ownership of celestial bodies.

NEW REALITIES?

THE TURNING POINT AND THE LIGHT OF TOMORROW

In late 2020, the Andromedans discovered a possible timeline in which the Galaxy would be completely at the mercy of the Orions' rule. The tipping point was near. This would have signaled the start of the end. So finally, the Galactic Federation had enough and was forced to institute a new protocol. They would finally be able to train The Earth Alliance in the construction and operation of their ultra-advanced military and technology. The Galactic Federation had much to offer in terms of wisdom and tactics, which the Alliance would have to implement in order to defend and eliminate the negative energies in our solar system. Eventually, the Federation decided to fight side by side with us in order to even the battlefield and help us change our course. They would first clear the Draconian and Orion presence from Jupiter's moons, then Mars. Later, they removed the negatives' Earth-moon bases and disconnected the energy beam that essentially enslaved us. More information can be found in the book "We will never let you down" by Elena Danaan. The Galactic Federation of Worlds contacted souls all over the galaxy who had soul agreements and asked them to incarnate here on earth to serve as beacons of light to help people awaken. We would have a limited amount of time to reach this critical mass, which would result in full disclosure and revolution on Earth. We are nearing the end of the process and will hopefully be liberated with the assistance of the Galactic Federation of Worlds. Everything is taking place right now.

The light and the hope

As of 2022, the Ciakahrr Empire, the Orion Group, and the Greys Alliance are being escorted out of our Solar System. The Galactic Federation of Worlds intervened because the Greada treaty expired in 2021, leaving a window of opportunity for intervention open. If we continue down the same path, we will stifle everyone's growth and spiritual evolution. The grand experiment is now complete, and it is time to realize our true human potential. We are multidimensional beings capable of reaching the fourth and even fifth density, where negative energies are less compatible. This would imply a Star Trek-style future (see Dr. Micheal Sallas' Youtube videos) in which we would finally become a part of the Galactic neighborhood as members of the Galactic Federation of worlds and the Dracos would be unable to coexist. The negatives have been extracted, but there are still some metaphysical time bubbles of negative influence, but it will get better when disclosure happens. There are also preprogrammed assets that are being activated in order to spread misinformation about specific topics. They did this as a preemptive measure to keep us divided. We must be aware of this, look beyond the horizon, and have faith that we, as a planet's human race, will be able to remove our own compromised power structure. The negative forces may try to return, which is why we must remain vigilant, but for the time being, it is time for a reset. We are all counting on you to do everything in your power to spread the vibration of love and contribute to making the world a better place where peaceful contact is unavoidable. The futures of our children are at stake and we are the ones who must lead the way. The freedom is in your heart.

CLOSING REMARKS AND SUMMARY

As of 2024, the current situation unfolds as follows: The Ciakahrr/Draconian Empire has been escorted away from our Sol system and finds themselves outmaneuvered by the GFW. With the emergence of the Negumak as a new enemy, the The Ciakahrr/Draconian is sidelined. The Orion Group Nebu has lost its stronghold on Earth, and the Red Queen, an AI entity responsible for coordinating operations in our system, has been dismantled. The operative Orion Group/NEBU no longer exists, and the Greys Alliance is in turmoil.

The Galactic Federation of Worlds intervened following the expiration of the Greada treaty in 2021, seizing a window of opportunity for intervention and cleanup operations. Negative Off-World Influencers are now prohibited from coming here, as positive forces like the Ashtar Command, The Nine, Galactic Federation of Worlds, Council of 6, and the Intergalactic Confederation patrol our system. Additionally, a local force known as The Alliance/Space Force contributes effectively.

Despite claims of encountering negative beings, it is unclear how this is possible. They may be holographics, biorobots, clones, or remnants of evil that still linger in hidden depths of our society. Conflicting viewpoints obscure the current state of the world, but one thing is certain: repeating past mistakes will hinder growth and spiritual evolution for all. The grand experiment is now concluded, and it's time to step into our real potential as humans. We are all counting on you to do your best to spread the vibration of love and to contribute to making the world a better place where peaceful contact with benevolent beings can occur without any doubt. Our children's futures are at stake.

SOURCES

In recent years there has been a wave of new people who have shed light and revealed excellent new intel. I want to thank those who have dared to speak out on this topic and those who have helped us connect the dots and keep this subject floating in times of ridicule, diversion, threats, and censorship. We owe them a great deal of gratitude. Thanks to those who have sacrificed their lives in the quest for truth. Thank you so much to everyone who have written or created podcasts on the topic of ETs. However, lately, there has been severe infiltration by negative entities and factions taking place in the alternative community. This causes doubt about the legitimacy of some of the content most of us believe to be authentic. All we can do is use discernment and connect to your resonance ability.

I have many sources of information, but I will not neglect the fact that from Elena Danaan’s book alien races – a gift from the stars ignited my fire to create these illustrations.
